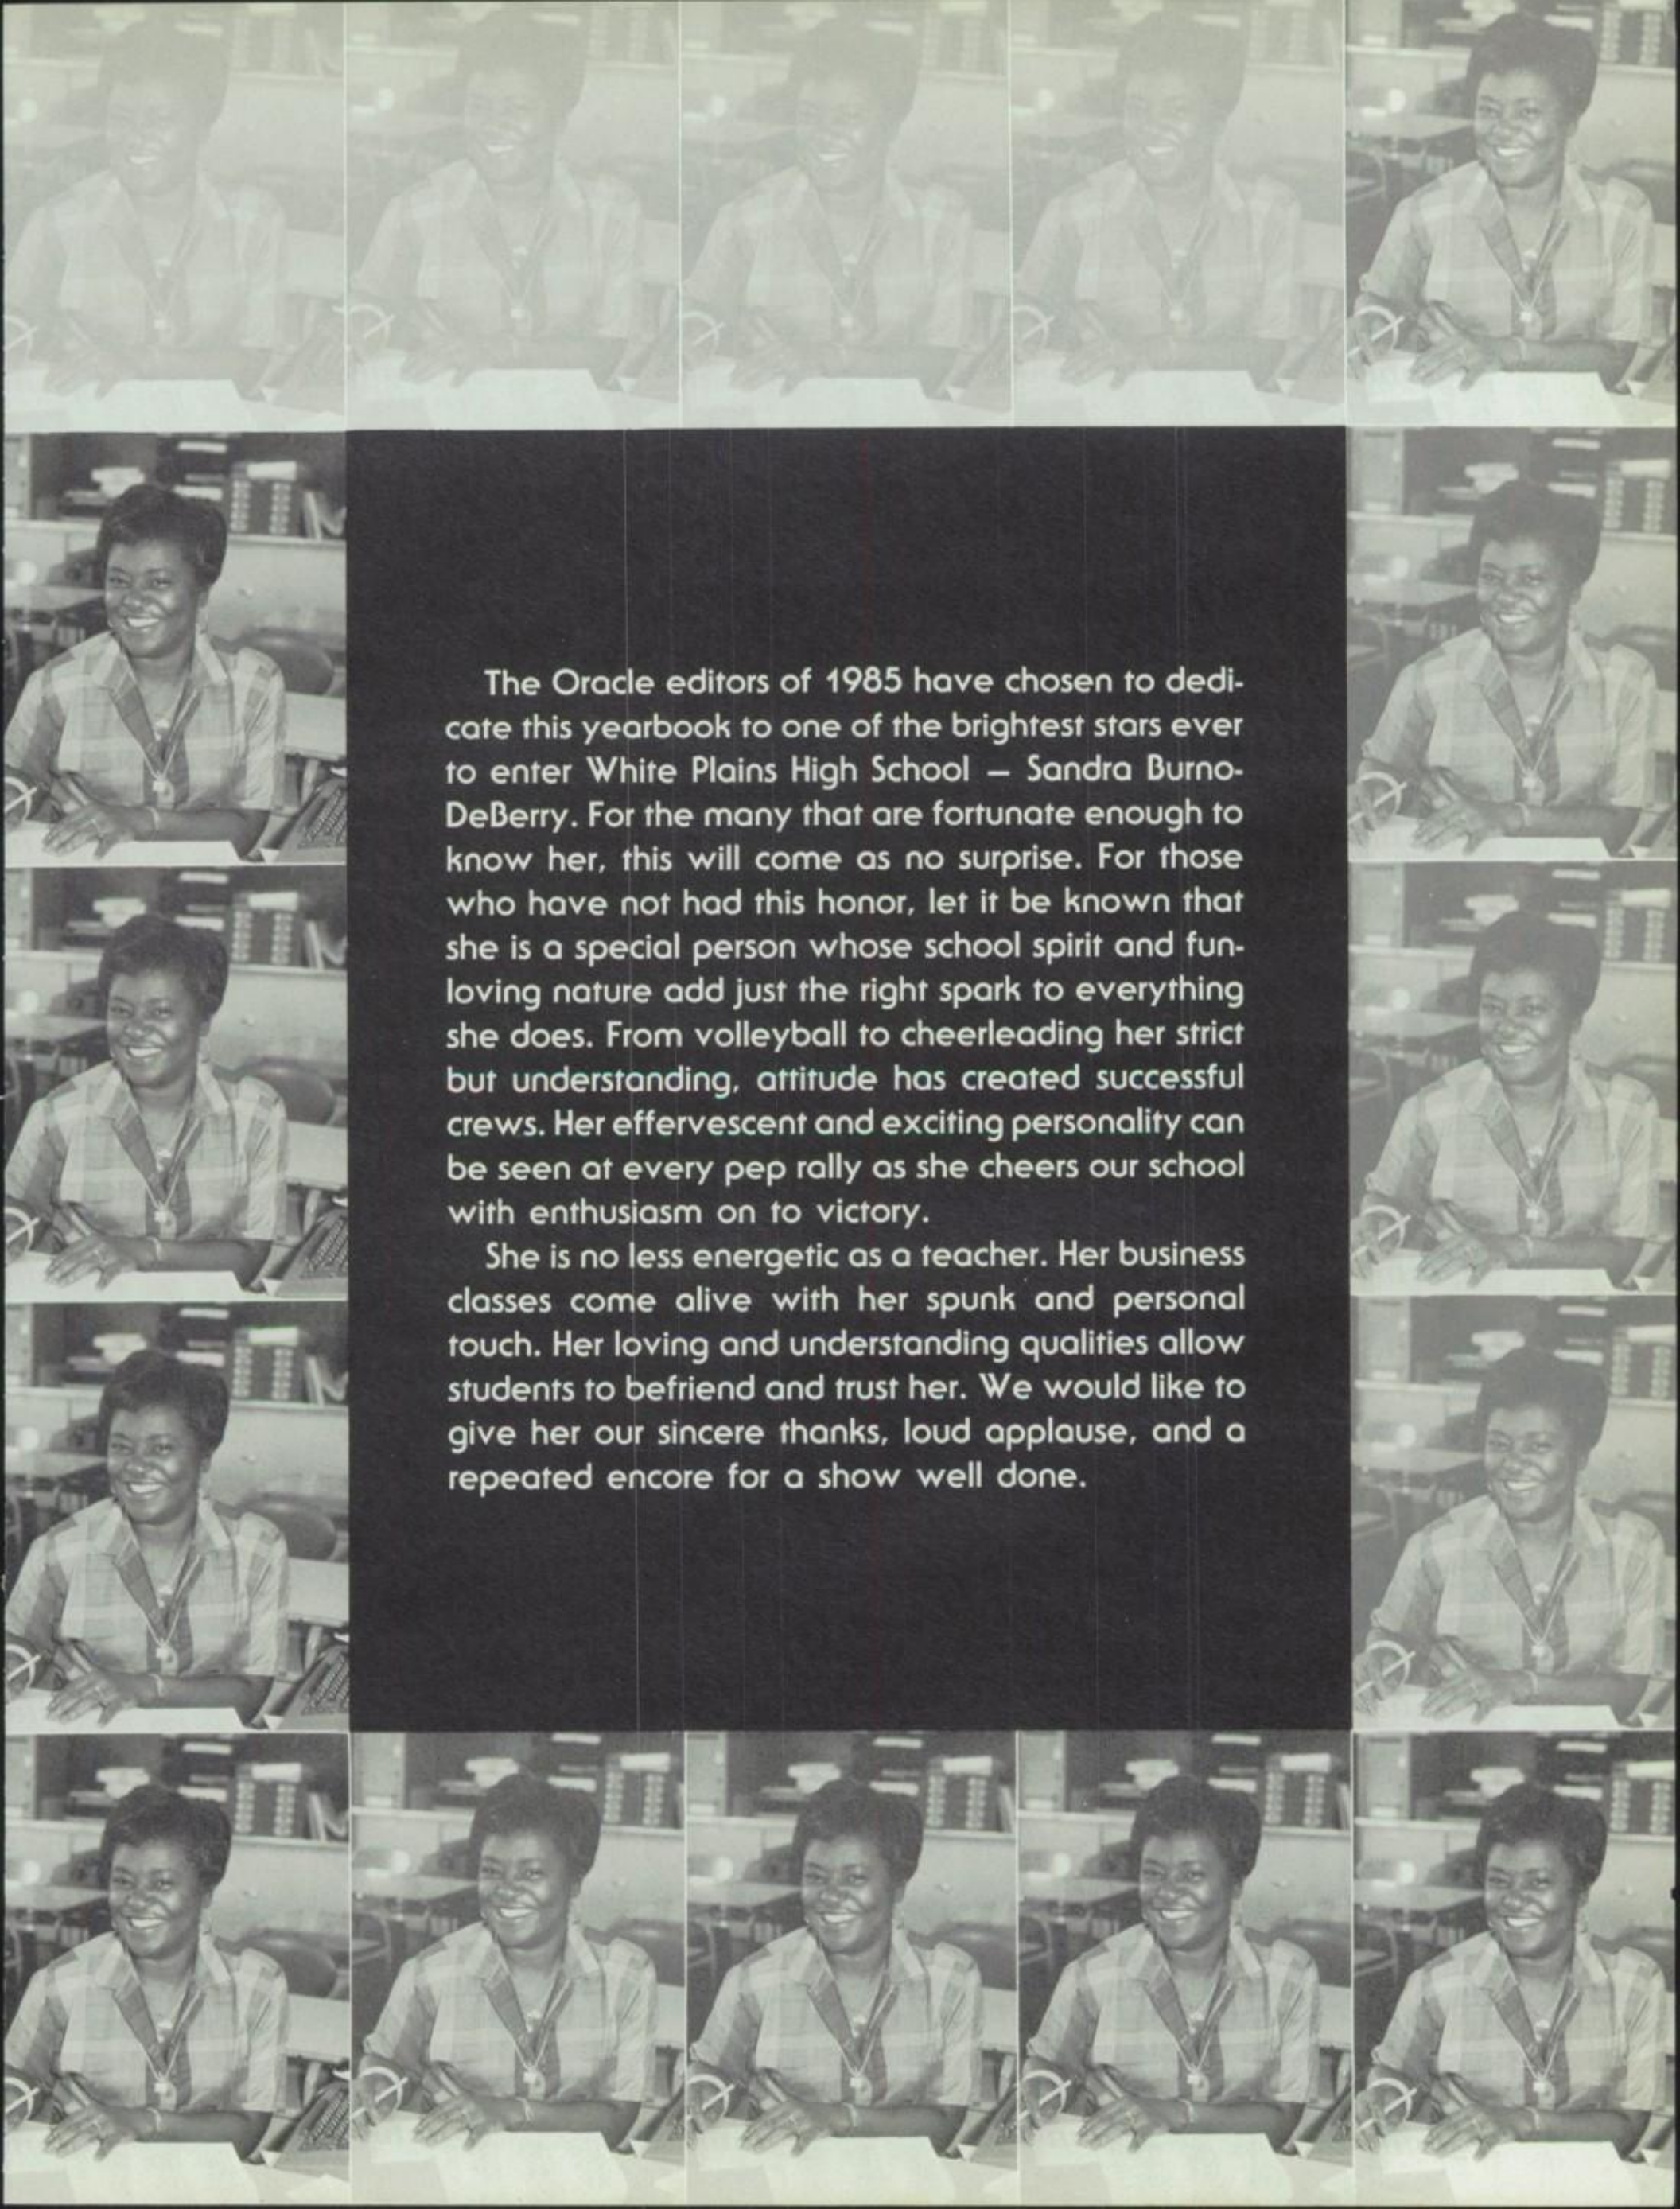
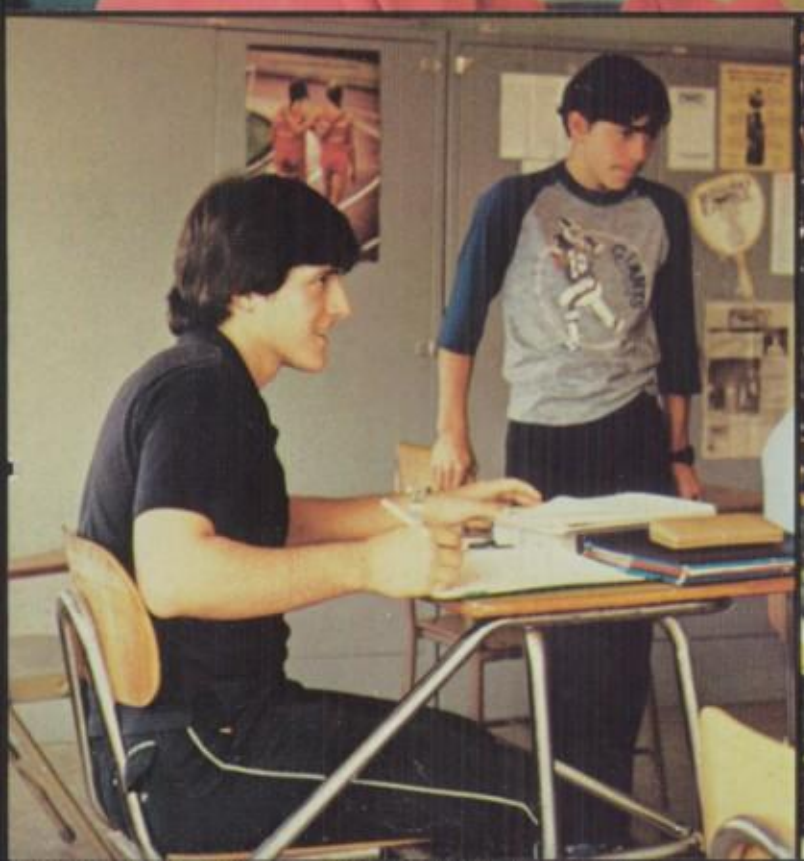
WPHS OSCAR AWARD WINNER 1985

MRS. SANDRA BURNO-DEBERRY



The Oracle editors of 1985 have chosen to dedicate this yearbook to one of the brightest stars ever to enter White Plains High School – Sandra Burno-DeBerry. For the many that are fortunate enough to know her, this will come as no surprise. For those who have not had this honor, let it be known that she is a special person whose school spirit and fun-loving nature add just the right spark to everything she does. From volleyball to cheerleading her strict but understanding, attitude has created successful crews. Her effervescent and exciting personality can be seen at every pep rally as she cheers our school with enthusiasm on to victory.

She is no less energetic as a teacher. Her business classes come alive with her spunk and personal touch. Her loving and understanding qualities allow students to befriend and trust her. We would like to give her our sincere thanks, loud applause, and a repeated encore for a show well done.



We are the movies – The movies are us – Stars all – Every day a new scenario – Reel after reel the film flickers on – So, LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

This year's #1 hit, The Class of 1985, was spectacular. This extraordinary film presented almost all the facets of life: real drama, fast paced action, pressure and tension, seduction, and outrageous humor.

The leading actors did a wonderful job, and many up and coming talents showed an A+ effort. The fans came back over and over again, and the ticket sales hit an all time high! Each time the curtain closed the word "Encore!" echoed through the theater, and the film nearly achieved instant fame. The four years it took to film this movie were well spent, for the entertainment world would not be the same without it.

The guidance department of White Plains High School has just finished work on the 4 year production The Class of 1985, which follows a group of teenagers arriving as inexperienced Freshmen and leaving as learned graduates. The guidance department not only helped write the script, but also appeared in cameo roles as the students' counselors. The stars of The Class of 1985 said the guidance department was most instrumental in making the movie and that they became friendly both on and off the set.

As Mr. Bond approached the double agent, he cautiously reached for his atomizer pistol and slowly pulled it out. "Comment t'appelles-tu?" Receiving no response he continued probing, "Como se llama?" Seeing that didn't work he inquired, "Come ti chiami?" Finally in desperation he tried, "Wie heißt du?" The agent gave no response. Perhaps he was Russian, but Mr. Bond would never know for he gave up and shot him. Better safe than sorry.

All the President's Men

The investigators from the Orange had the information. The article would be published. It had taken months of diligent searching. The first clue had come from one of those working closest to the G.O. President. As hard as it was to believe, all the governments were involved — North House, South House, Freshmen Class, Sophmore Class, Junior Class, Senior Class, and the G.O. They had been stealing passes from the teachers.

The sports critics had high hopes in their previews for the Field Hockey Team this year. The team, directed by Coach Skrivanek, was on their way to stardom. Through all the behind the scene problems, the squad maintained its spirit.

"You look marvelous, simply marvelous" . . . "Bring your lawnmower to Saturday's practice" . . . "You sound just like my mother" . . . "Kelly, Tom, and lacrosse at Merestead . . . SOCCER

From their debut to their final screening, the Soccer Team was received with standing ovations. Only their opposition were disappointed. The rehearsals were long and tough, but the perfection of the Soccer Team's work showed in their polished performances. They proved to be more than just photogenic.

SECTION AII CHAMPS!!!

Cast of Characrers:

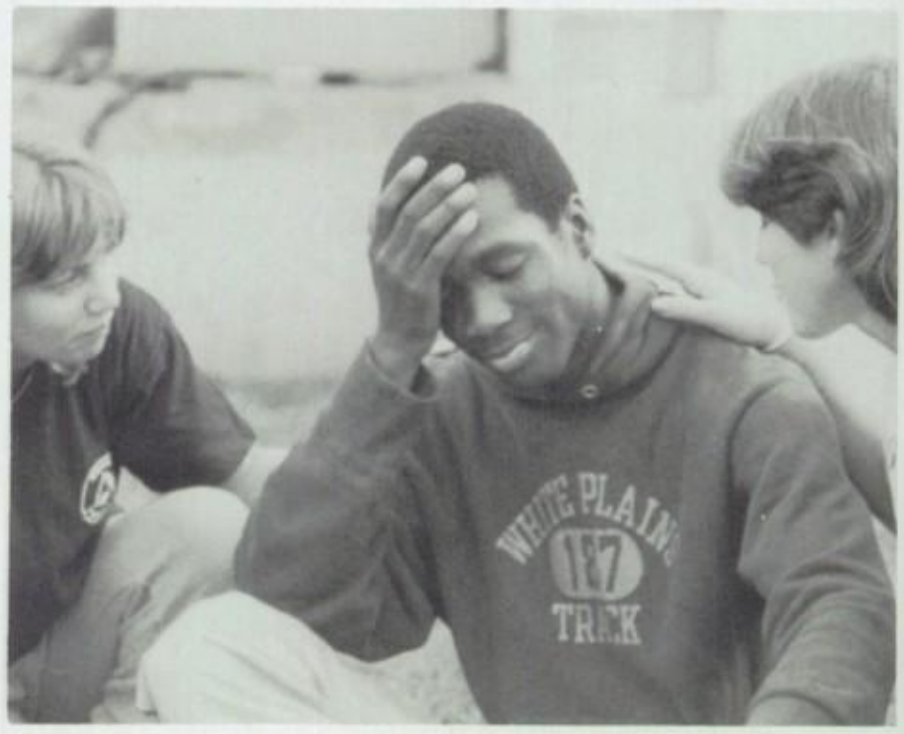
CROSS COUNTRY

Pounding the streets and hills around White Plains, our Cross Country team performed with that certain style attributed to a high class and spirited team. The dedicated and talented runners showed that hard work pays off. They strived for a perfect performance and in the long run triumphed.

LEAGUE CHAMPS!!!



Cast of Characters:

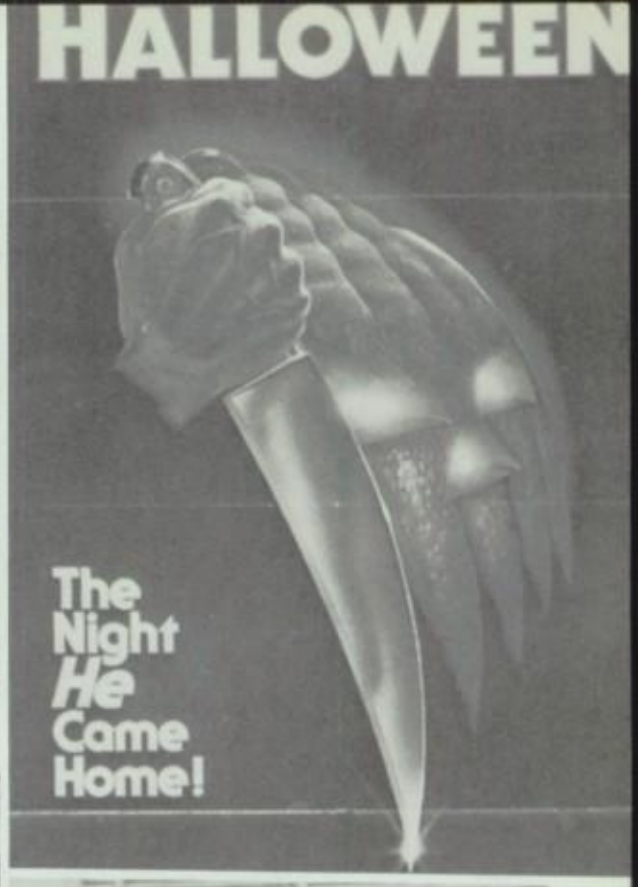
GIRLS' TENNIS

The netsters served up an exciting season of tennis. The girls could often be seen rehearsing their script of countless backhands, forehands, groundstrokes, and volleys under the leadership of Director Green, whose motto was "Whatever you do, do your best."

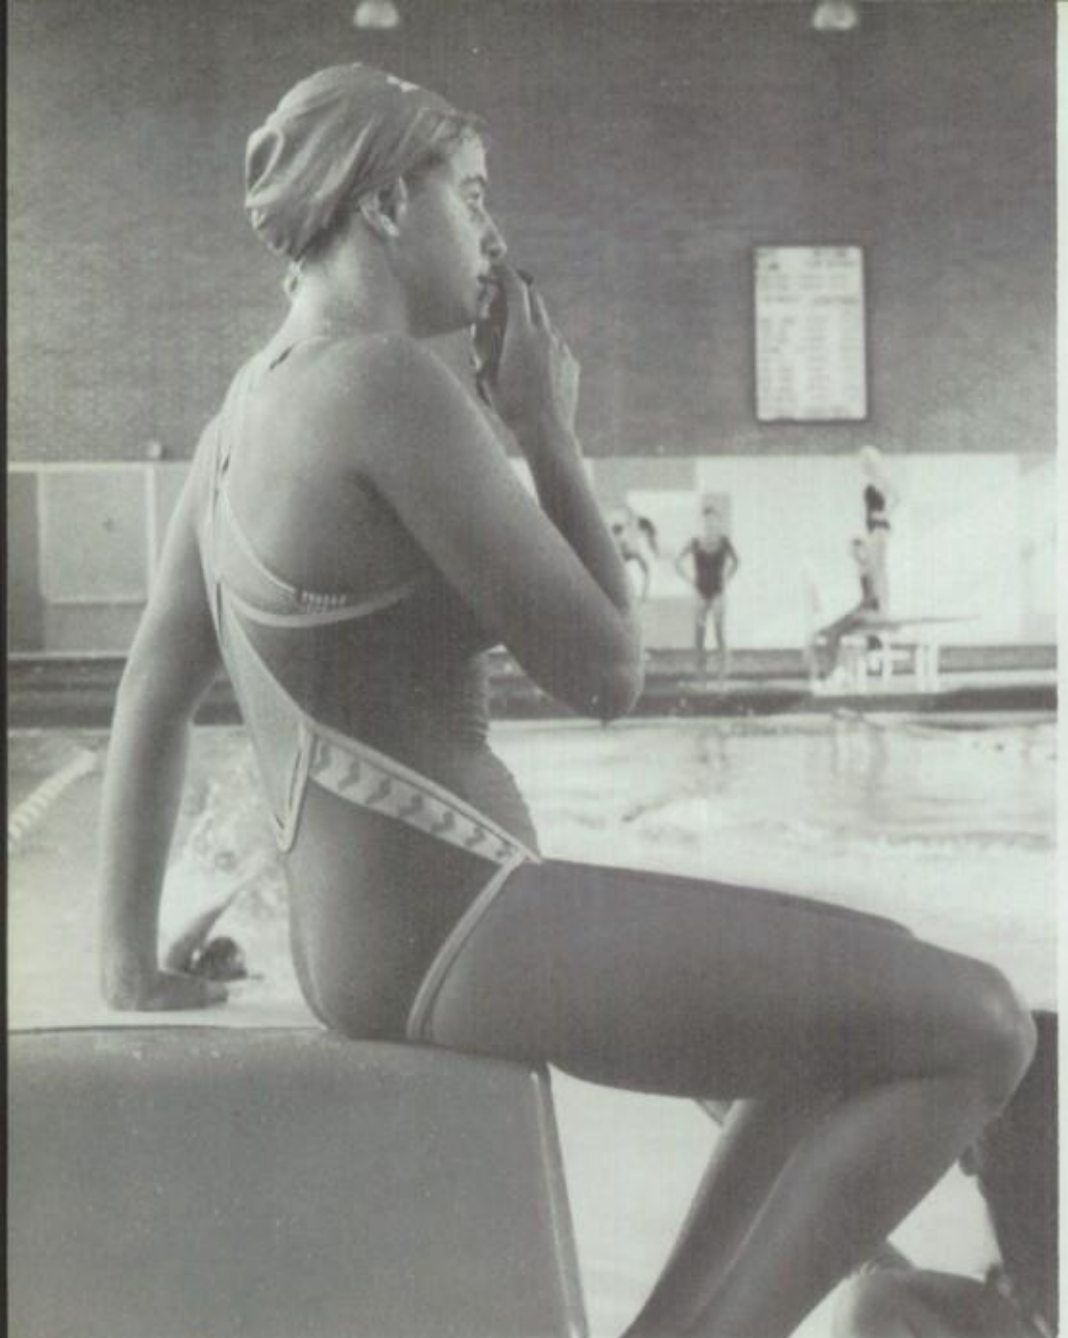
Cast of characters:

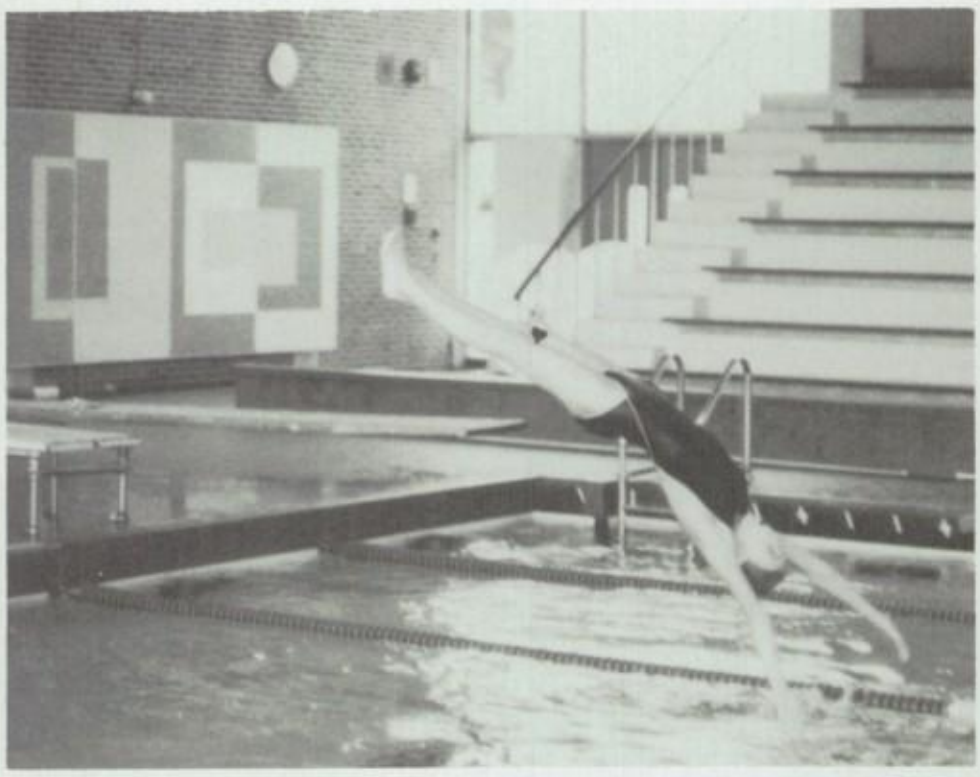
Lauren, Ronnie, Liz, Leslie, Nancy, Debbie, Tanya, Lisa (Capt), Julie, Stacey, Lauren, Jill (Capt.), Michelle, Jocelyn, Sandi, Jodi, Colleen, Stephanie, Jennifer, Hillary, Lauren, Kristen, Denise, Marcy, Lisa, Carolyn, Chris, Laurienne, Jackie, Tracy

VISITOR



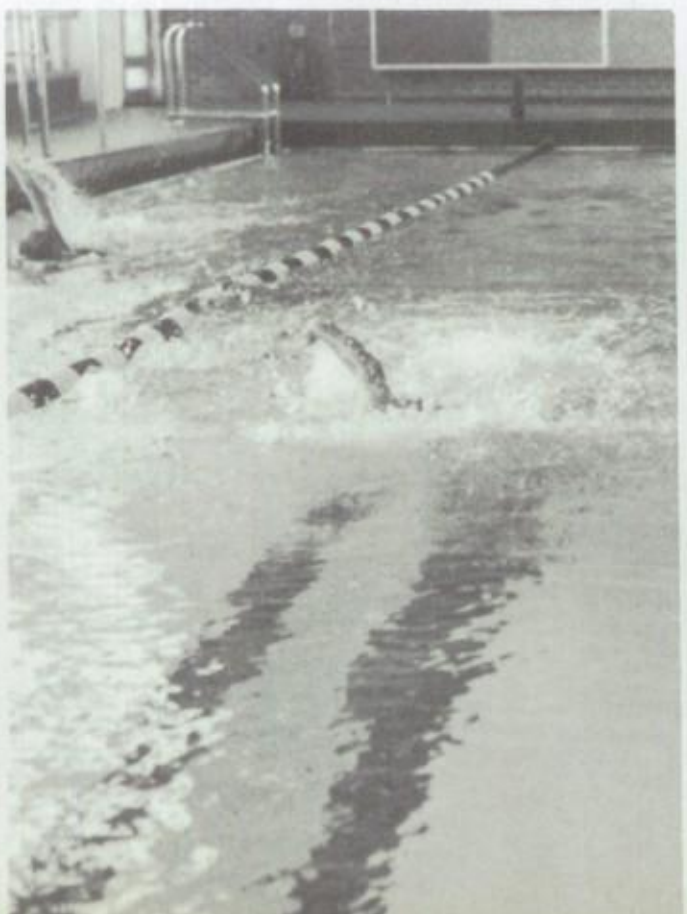
She slowly opened the creeking door into the dismal classroom. Flicking on her flashlight, she stepped toward the desk. She searched and searched, but could not find the final. What if it was not there? She will fail, and won't be able to graduate. What a nightmare, another year of high school! She had to find it. But, as she continued her search, she felt another presence in the room. She turned around and screamed. Dr. Kusel was standing over her with an ax!





GIRLS' SWIMMING

Remember when . . .
The lane holder fell into the pool in the deep end.
The freshmen brought food to eat on the busride home from away meets.
The team would sing in the showers.
There was a roach on Lauren's back.
The team would cheer "From pool to pool, our team is really cool."



You're on the starting block. All your hard work must come together right now. A feeling of exhilaration flows through you as the team cheers you on. You must conquer the opponent. All your attention is focused on one thing — your stroke. You plunge in the water. A force is driving you to kick faster, pull harder, breathe less. Nothing can distract you now. The audience, the team, the coach, the hours of practice are unimportant now. It's just you and your opponent, the person challenging your rise to fame.

Cast of Characters:

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Taking command on the court, the White Plains Girls' Basketball Team was once again the main attraction. Their aggressive style fulfilled the predictions of the critics for another great season. These stars came through under pressure. Achieving instant fame with that trend setting style, they sold out performance after performance.

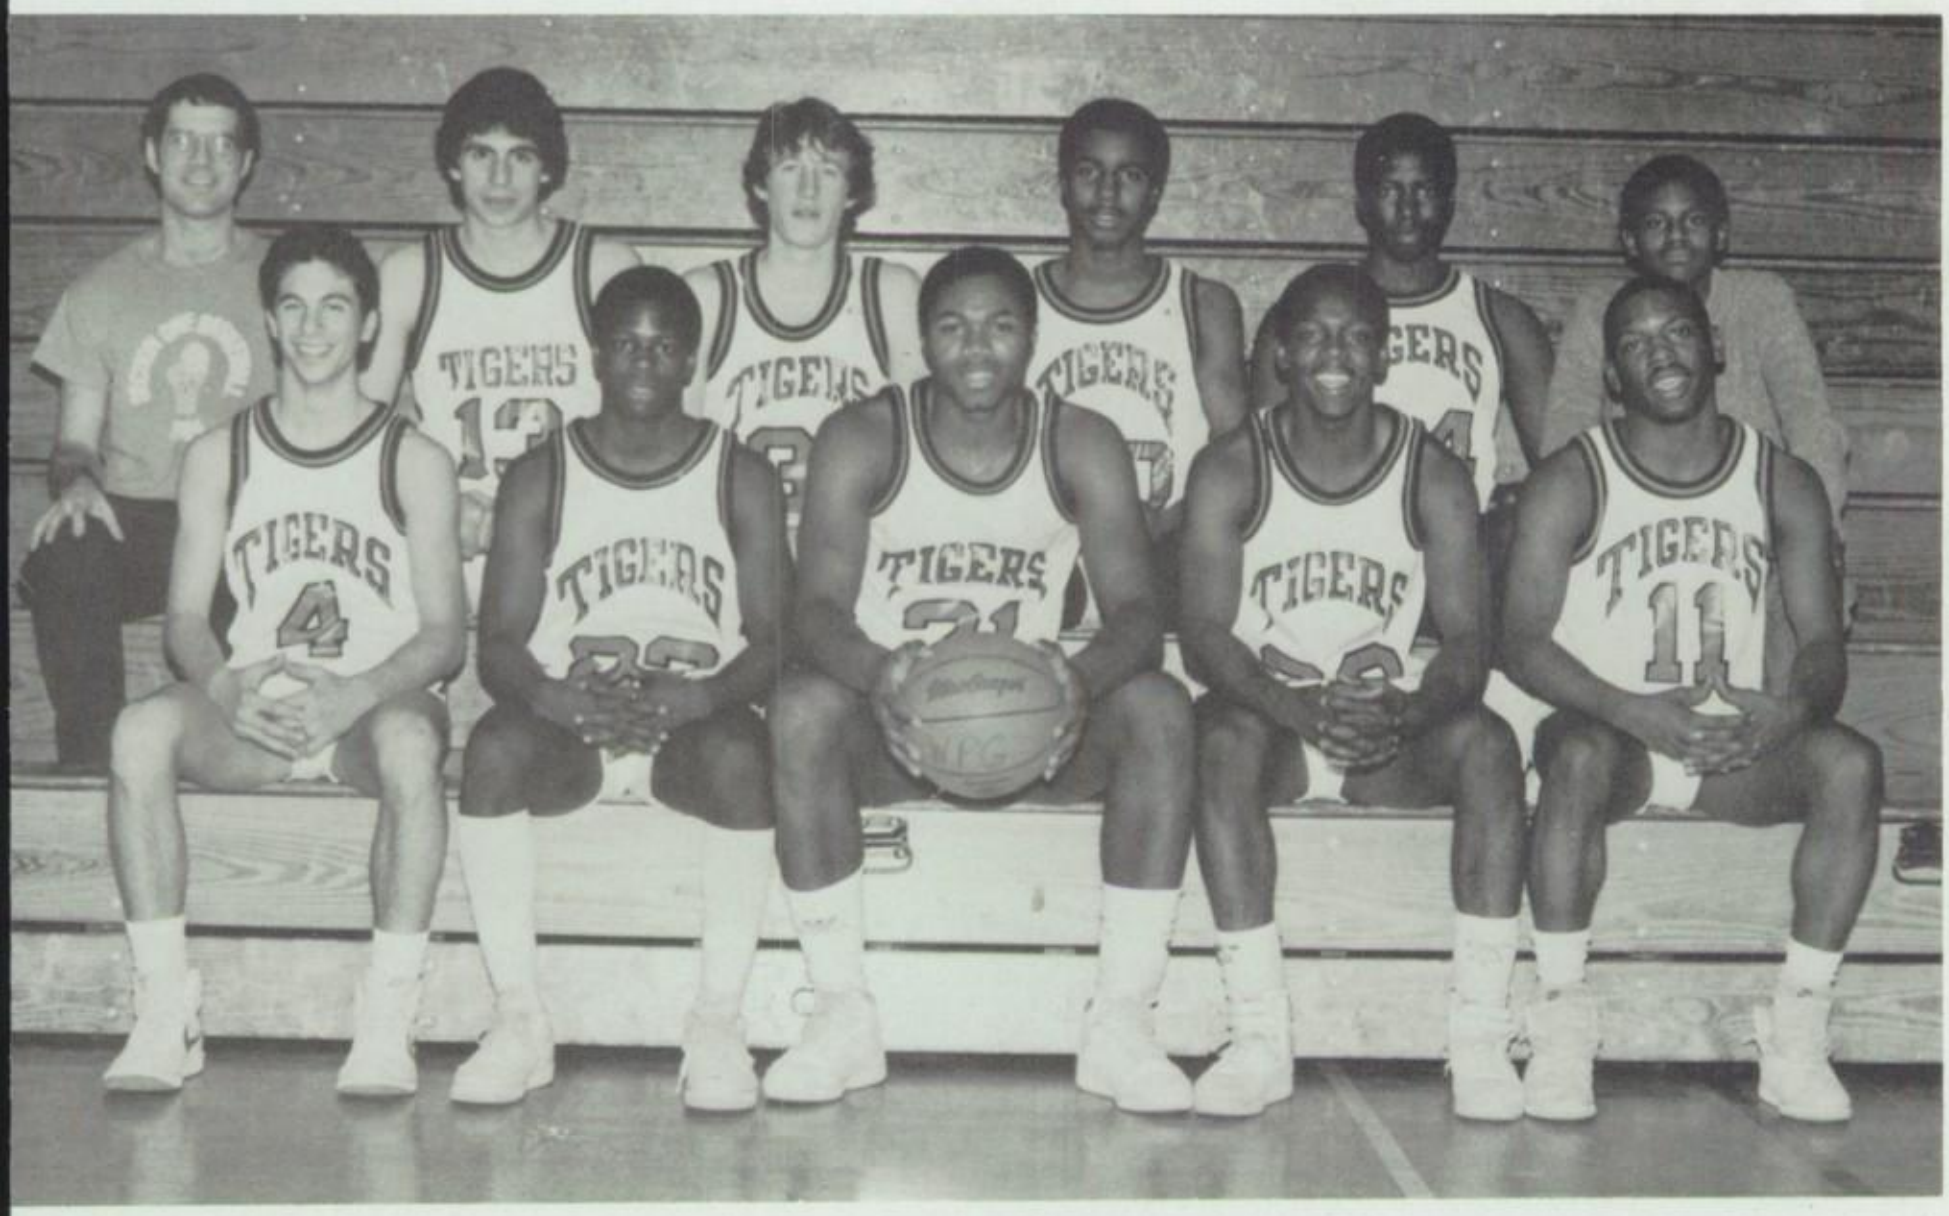
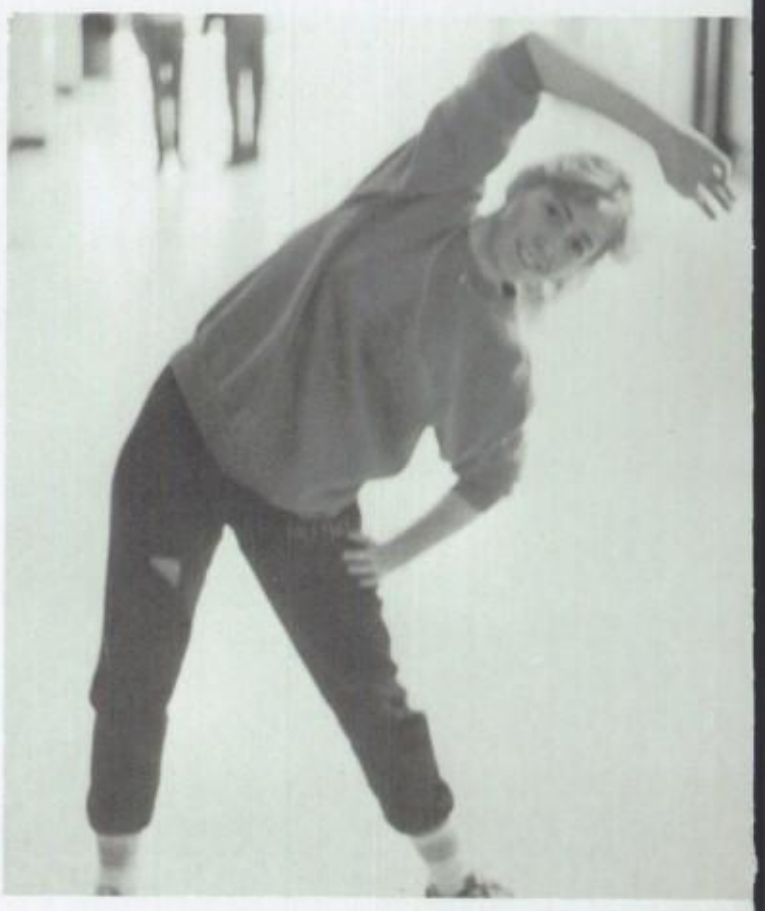
Running up and down the court, the Boys' Basketball team puts on an exciting show for the cheering spectators. The team has many stars whose dedication and long hours of practice have paid off. There is no other cast that can equal the spectacular performances of our Boys' Basketball Team.

Cast of Characters:
Kevin, Dave, Jimmy, Steve, Ronnie, Greg, Chapel, Chris, Norman

BOYS' BASKETBALL



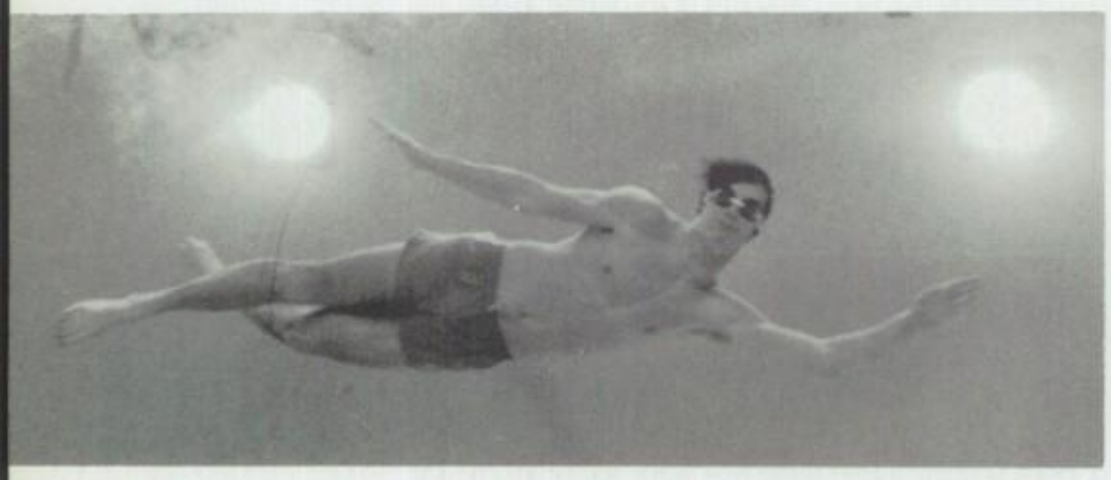
INDOOR TRACK

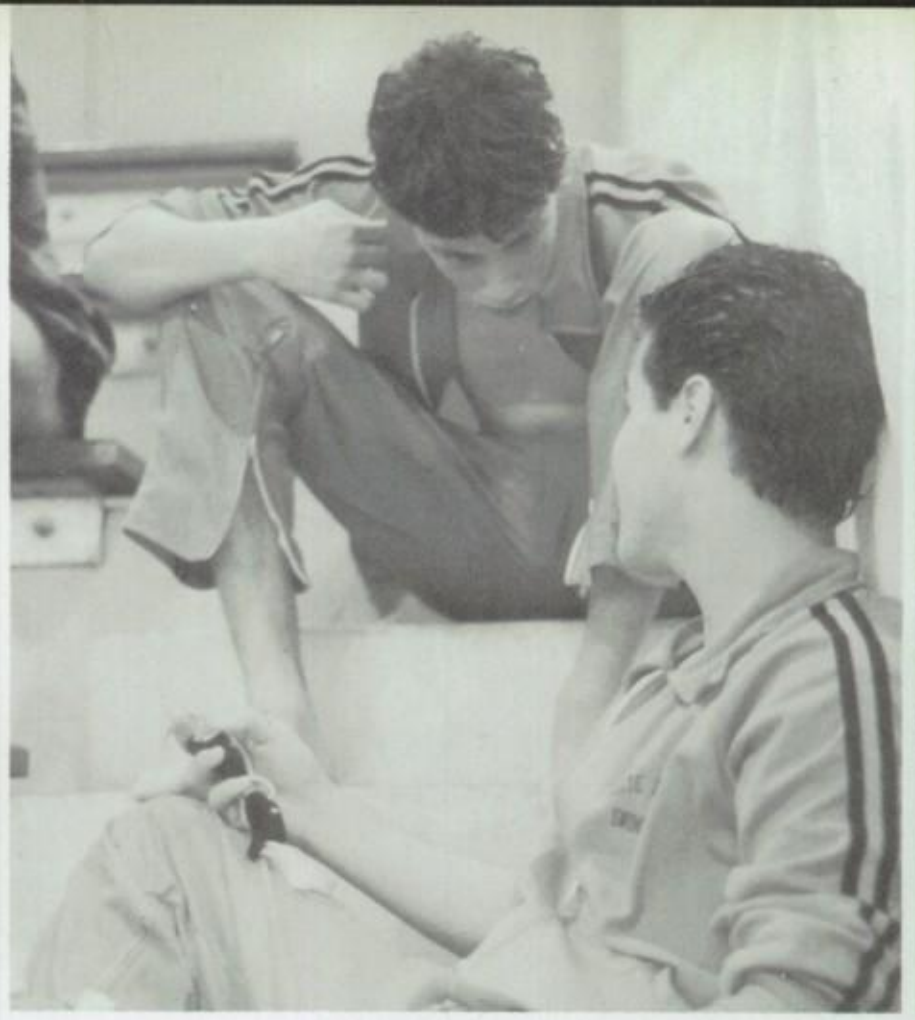


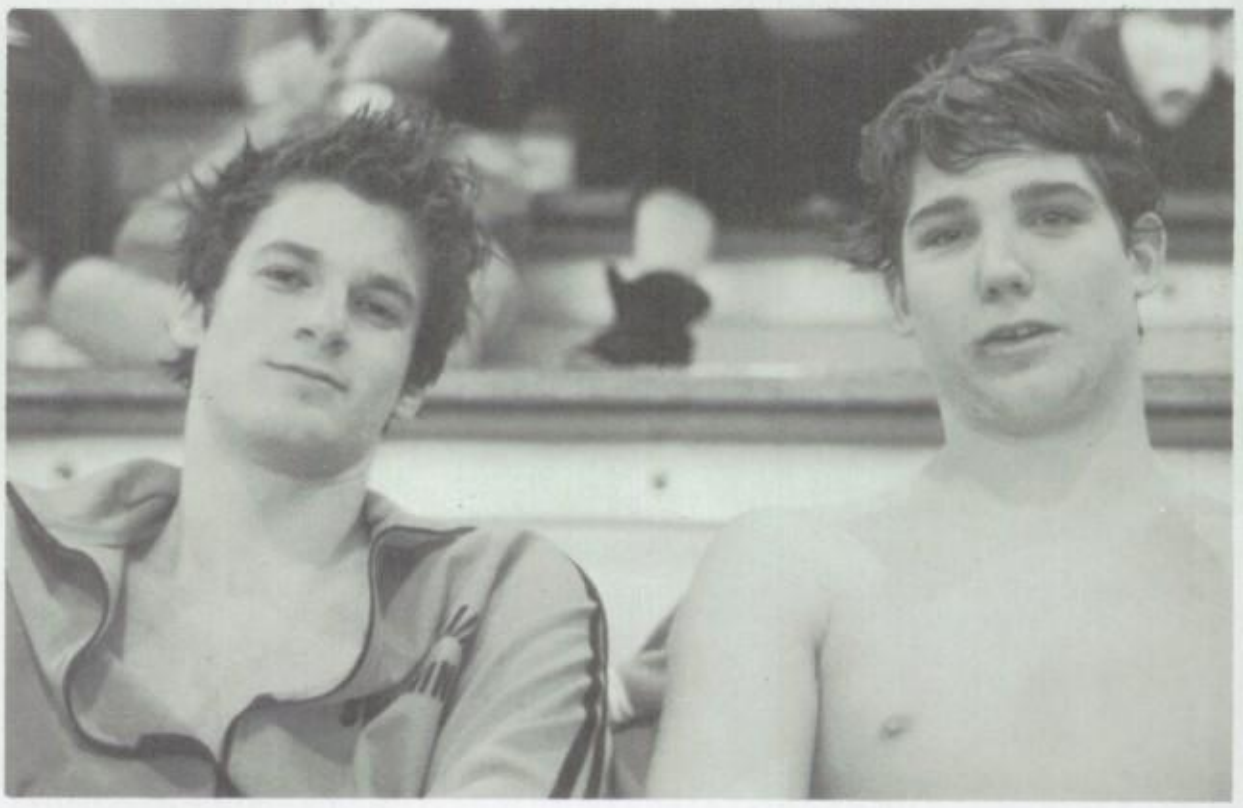
While it is frigid outside, these athletes are warming up inside. They're our indoor track team, gobbling up the miles without ever leaving the warmth of the school. These dedicated tracksters know every crack and cranny of the floors after pounding upon them day after day in practice. The veteran runners add their experience on set to the exuberance of the rookies to give all competitors a run for their money.

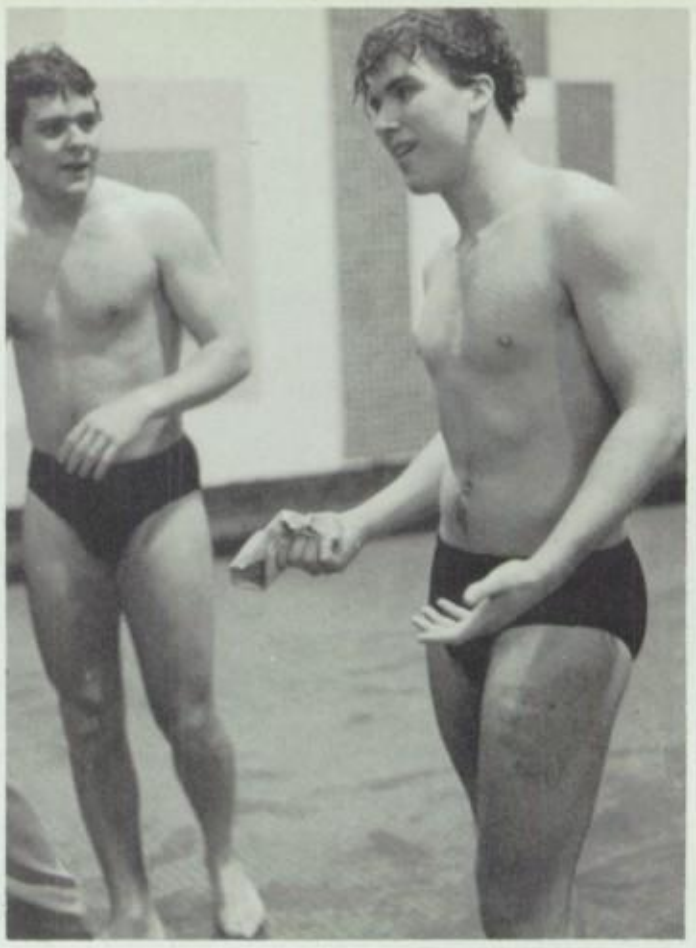
BOYS' SWIMMING

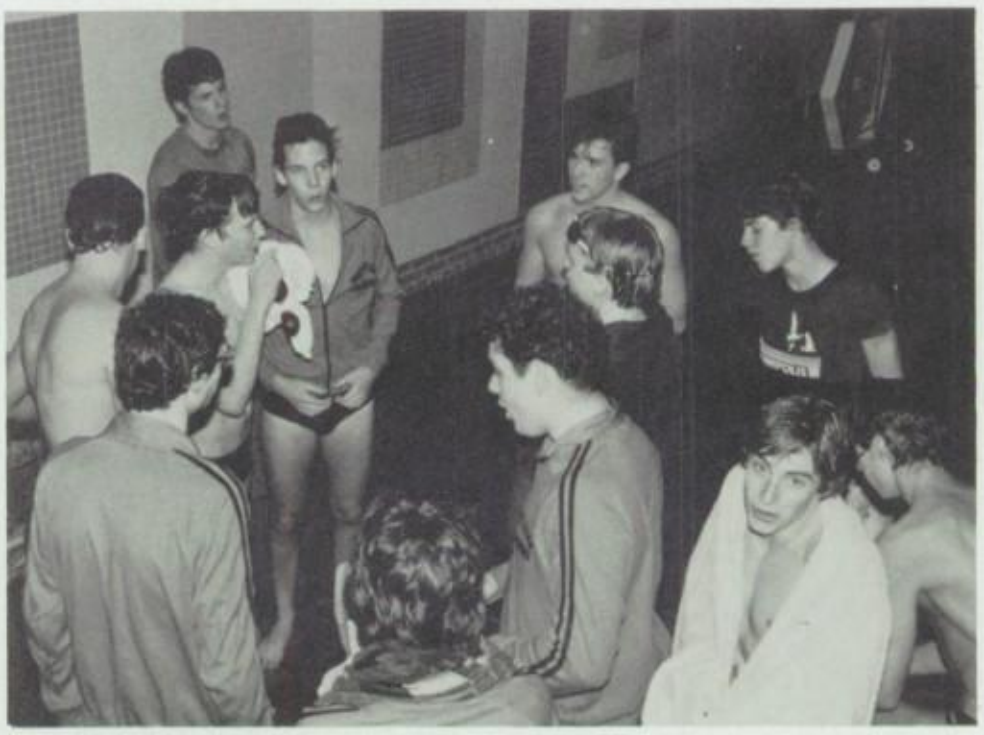
The competitive sport of swimming provides no easy claim to fame. The performer does not only have to outswim his opponent but also has to outlast him. The swimmer has to go all out and give his best performance in every race. Although only the leading character is in the spotlight, the whole cast creates their team's star quality. The happiness of triumph overcomes all weariness.

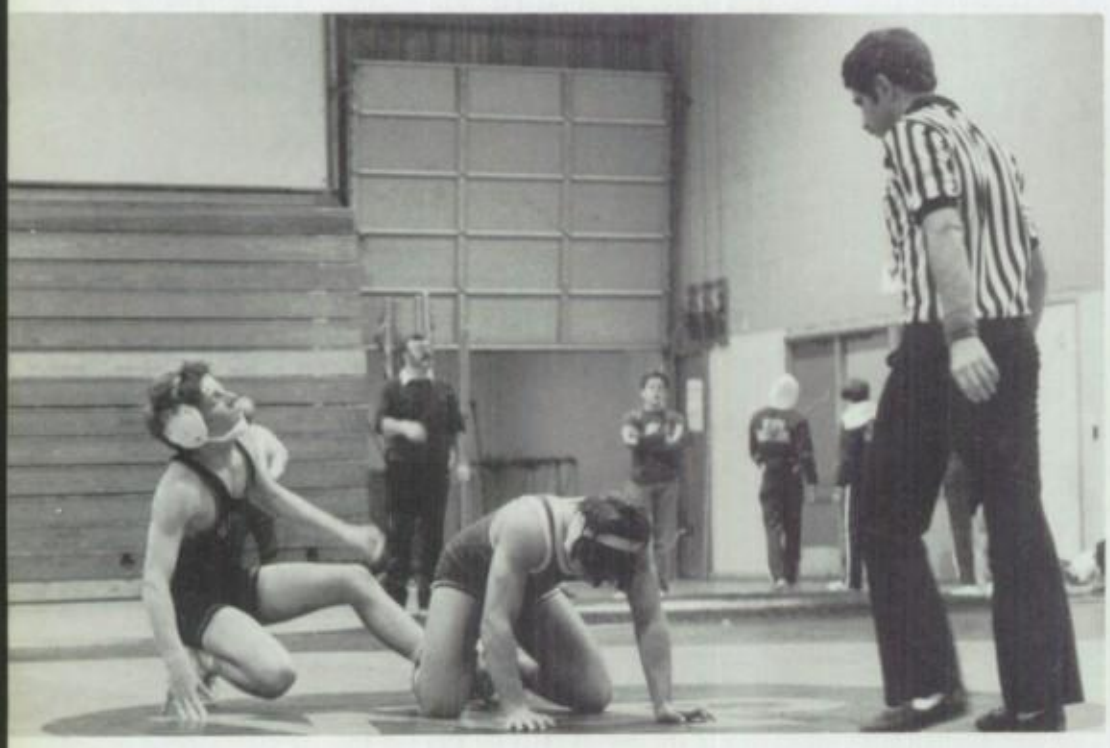


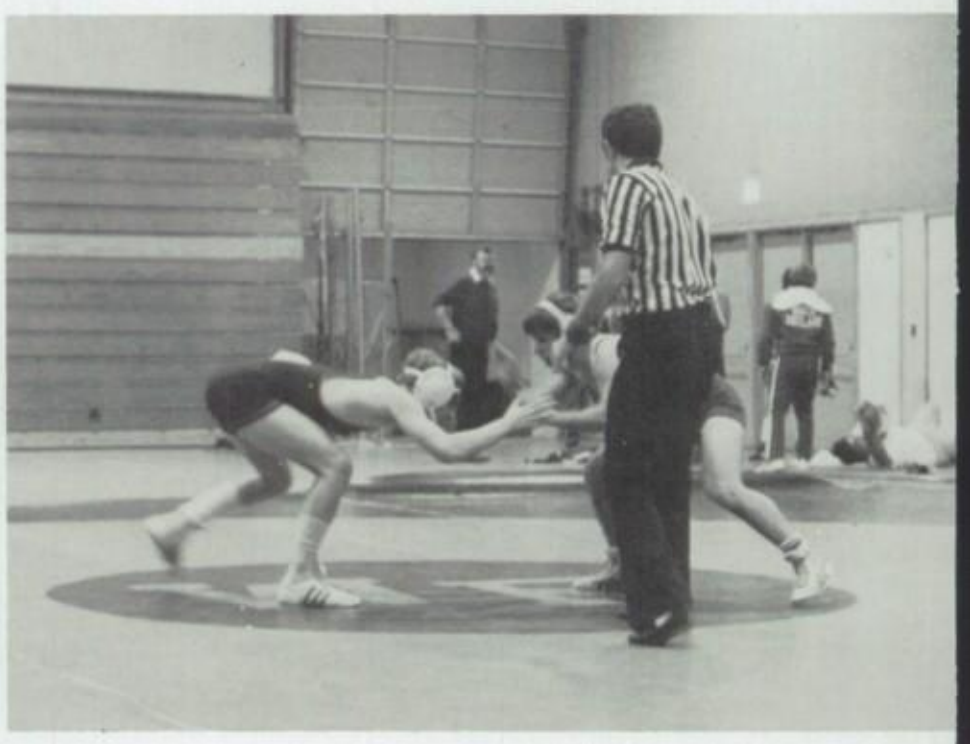


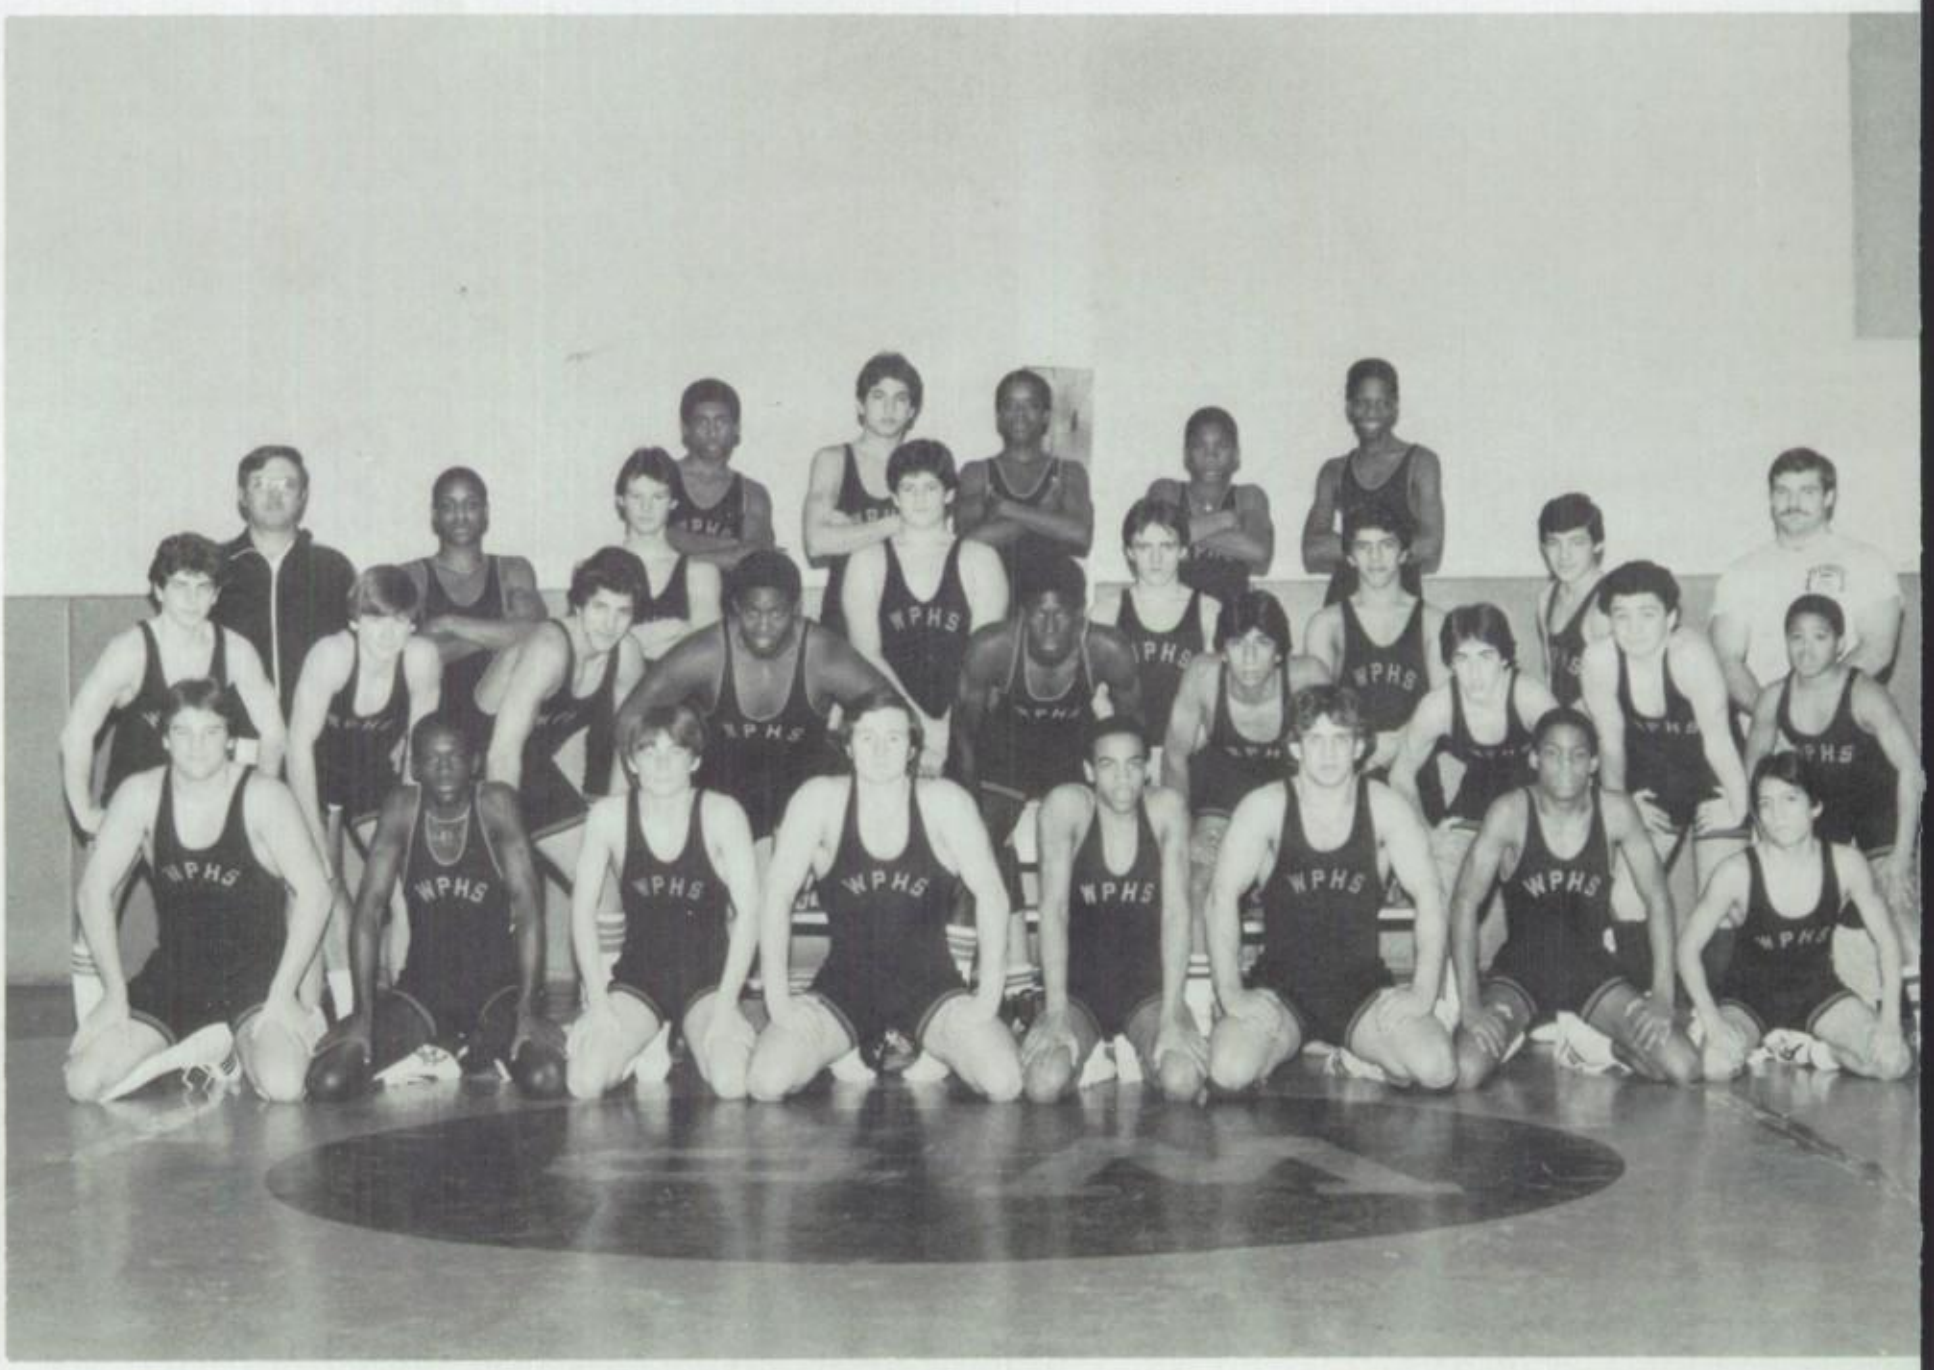




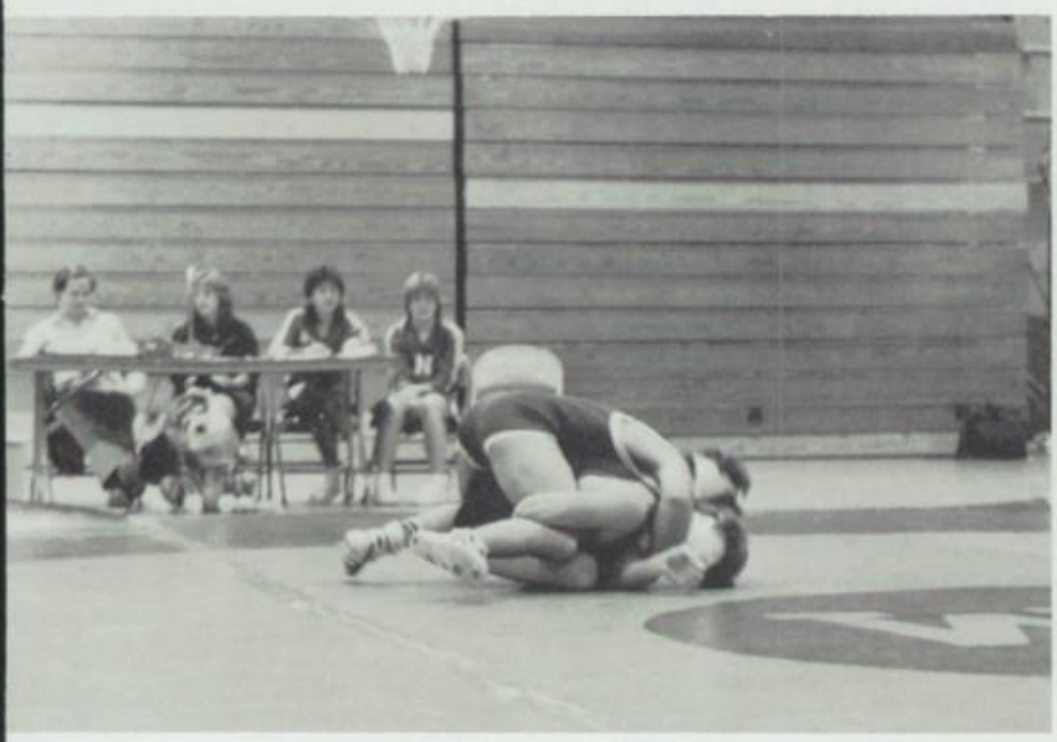








WPHS



WRESTLING

Experienced seniors carried on the grapplers' winning tradition at WPHS. Dedication characterized this cast which strove tirelessly to win callbacks to the next level of competition. The defending section champs overcame severe losses due to graduation to rebound with enthusiasm and new blood en route to a solid season.
Cast of characters:

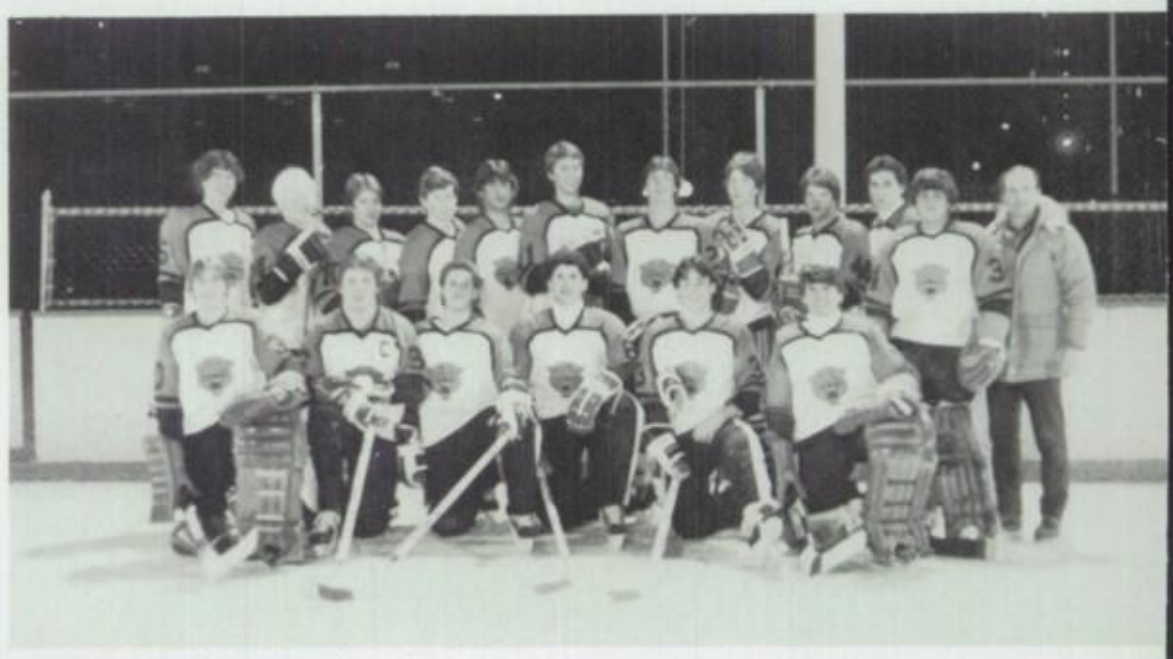
Frank, Neil, Peter, Mitch, Nick, Mike, Bryant, Frank, Harry, Jim, Shelton, Ken, Alberto, Davey, Mike, Keith, John, Jose, Luis, Tom, Pat (manager)

GIRLS' GYMNASTICS

Cast of Characters:

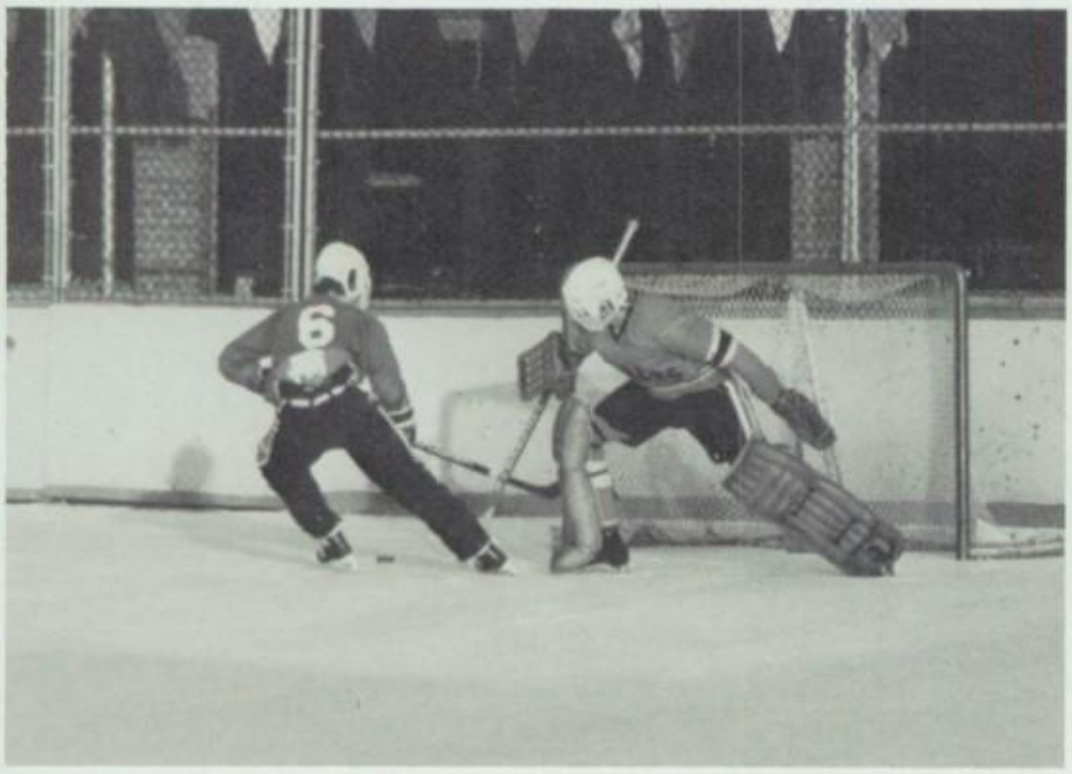
Lauren (Capt.), Jennifer (Capt.), Karen, Lee, Martina, Jennifer, Cherrie, Jennifer.

The gymnast must make each performance her best. She must combine the strength of a weight lifter with the grace of a ballerina. There is no one to help her once she starts the performance, no chance to retape. She has to impress the audience, the judges, and herself. Once she finishes her solo, all the applause are just for her.



ICE HOCKEY

The sticksters never failed to provide fast paced drama. With speed and excitement, the icemen were the rising stars of the winter season. Their explosiveness gives them a leading role in the award winning thriller, WPHS Sports Highlights, 84-85.



INTERNATIONAL DINNER

The international dinner gave us the opportunity to perform, learn about other cultures and languages, eat, and have a great time! This once a year screening was attended by a large and enthusiastic audience. We didn't need subtitles to enjoy or understand this event. From the Three Little Pigs in Latin to Pinocchio in French, from german chocolate cake to frijoles, the international dinner was a spectacular success.

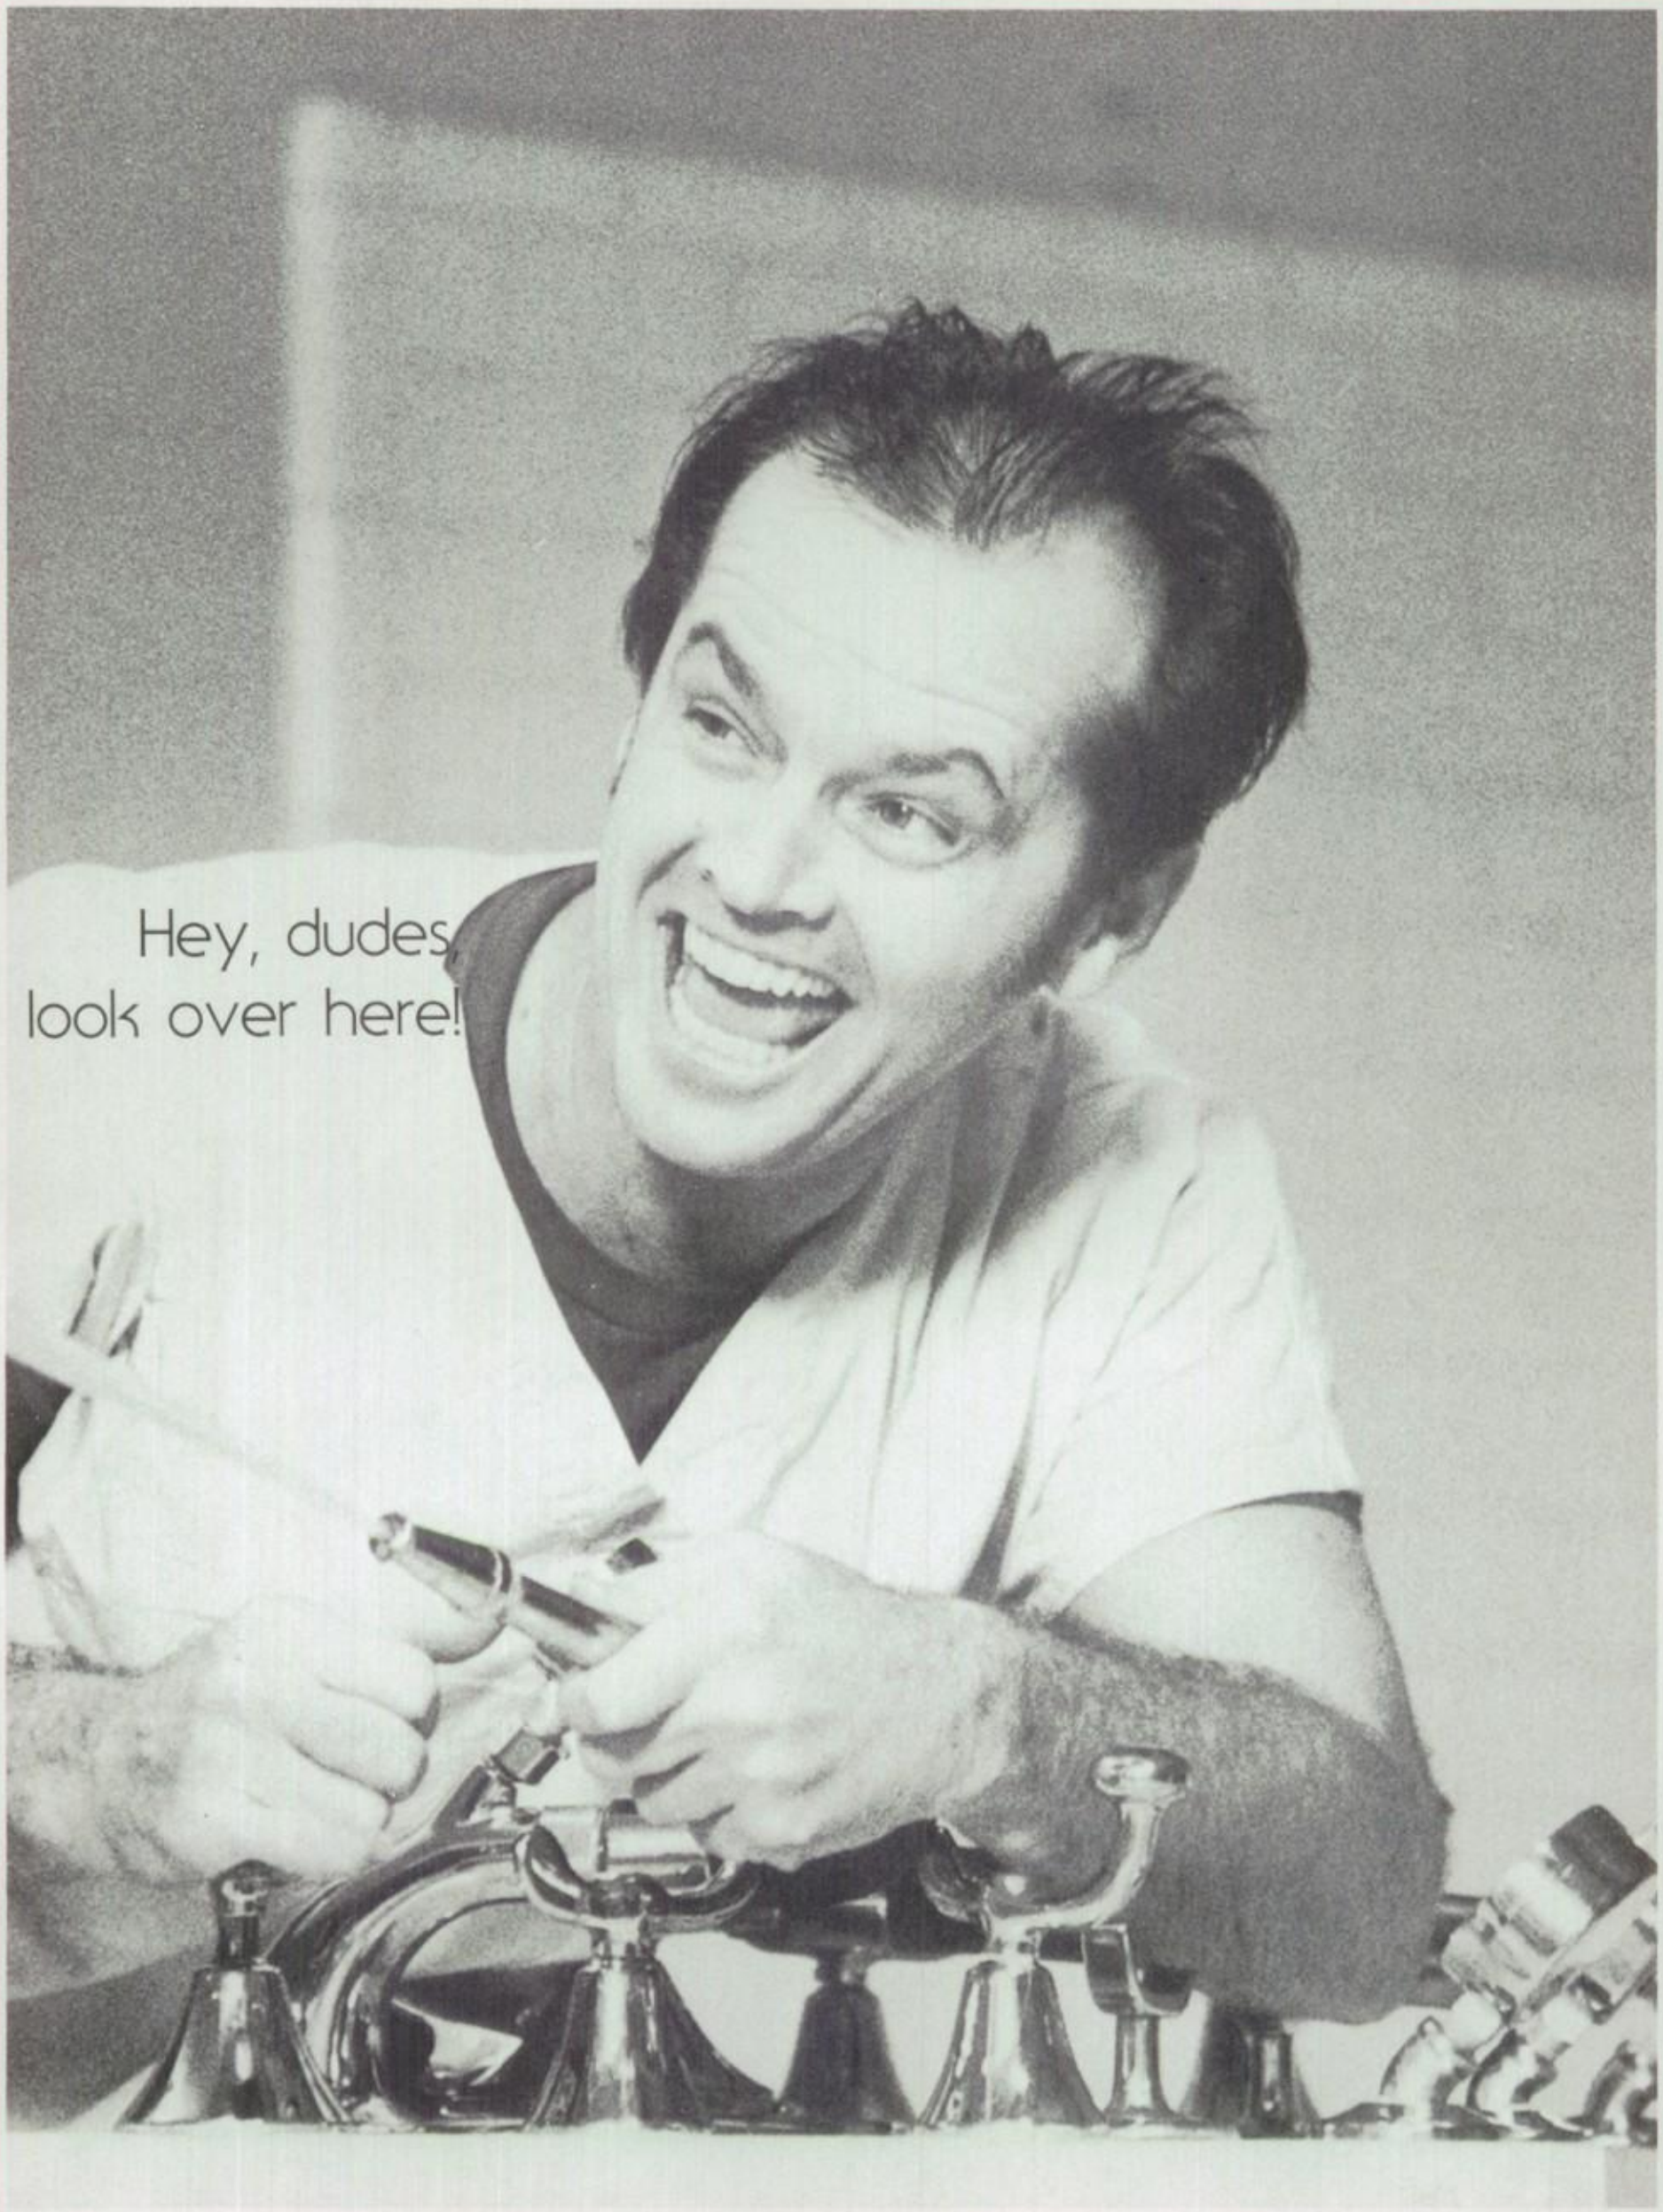
As the Class of 1985 graduates, there will be one seat conspicuously left empty. It is for Mr. Windbiel, a dedicated teacher at White Plains High School, who was adored by all who knew him. He has passed away prematurely, but he is still alive within each member of the Class of 1985.



Hey, dudes,
look over here!

Although Yale has always favored
The Violet's dark blue
And the gentle sons of Harvard
To the Crimson rose are true,
We will own the lillies slender,
Nor honor shall they lack
While the Tiger stands defender
Of the Orange and the Black.
Through the four long years of High School,
Midst the scenes we know so well,
As the mystic charm to knowledge
We vainly seek to spell;
Or to win athletic victories
On the football field or track
Still we fight for dear old White Plains
And the Orange and the Black.

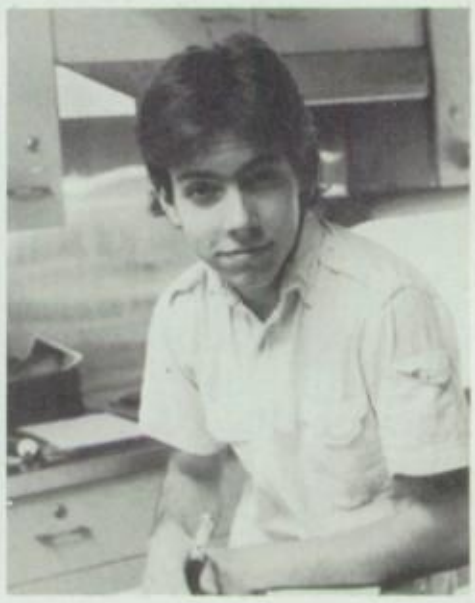
STOUFFER'S '85

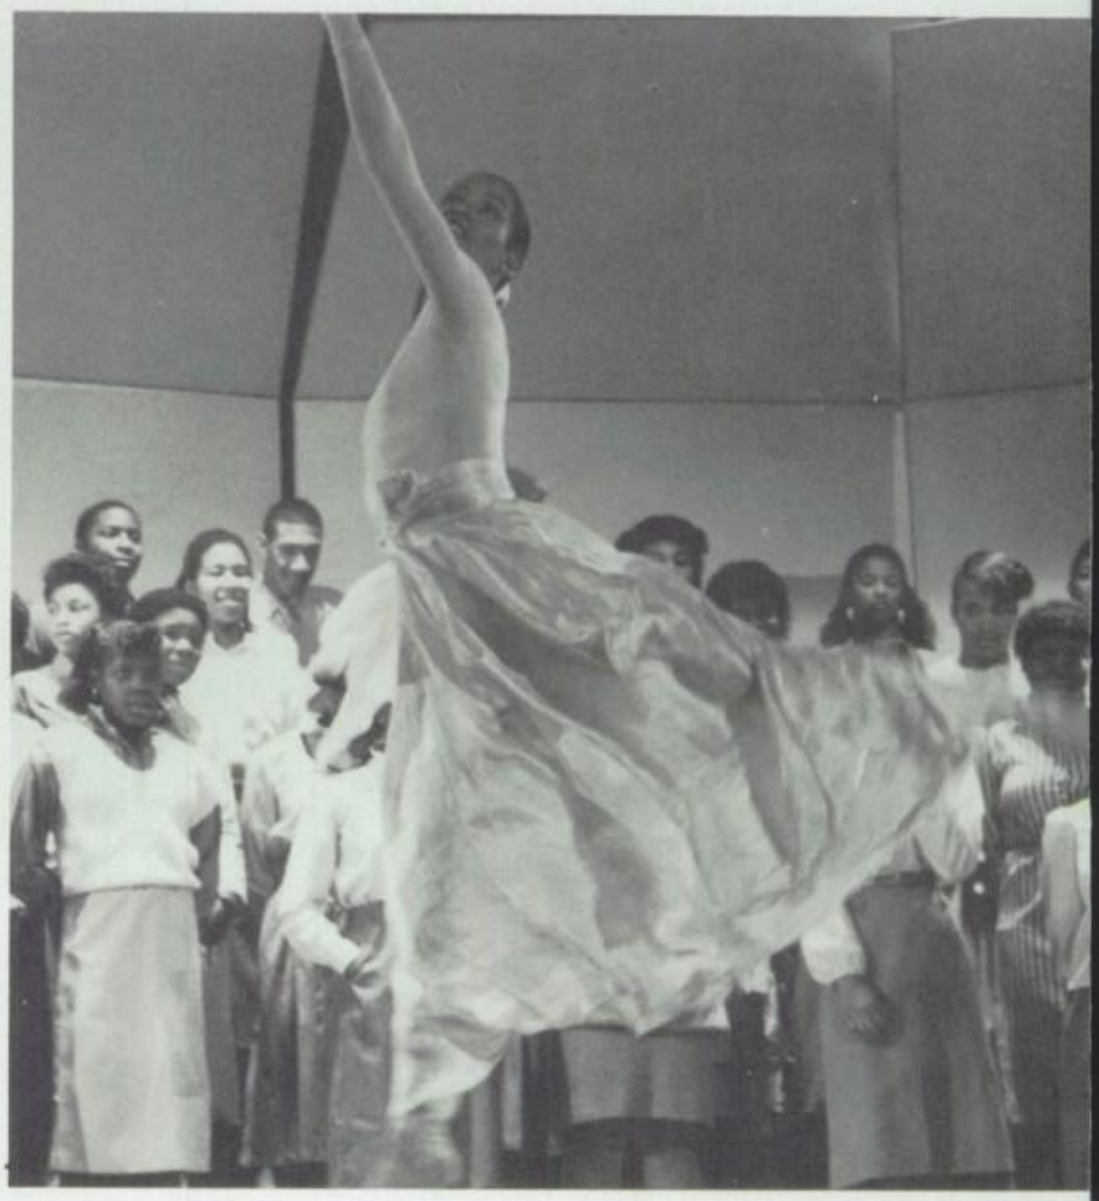
"Let's blow this popsicle stand and cruise on over to the Copa."

A murderer was among them, wasting students one by one until it was down to an unsuspecting few . . .



. . . AND THEN THERE WERE NONE

BLACK HISTORY CELEBRATION

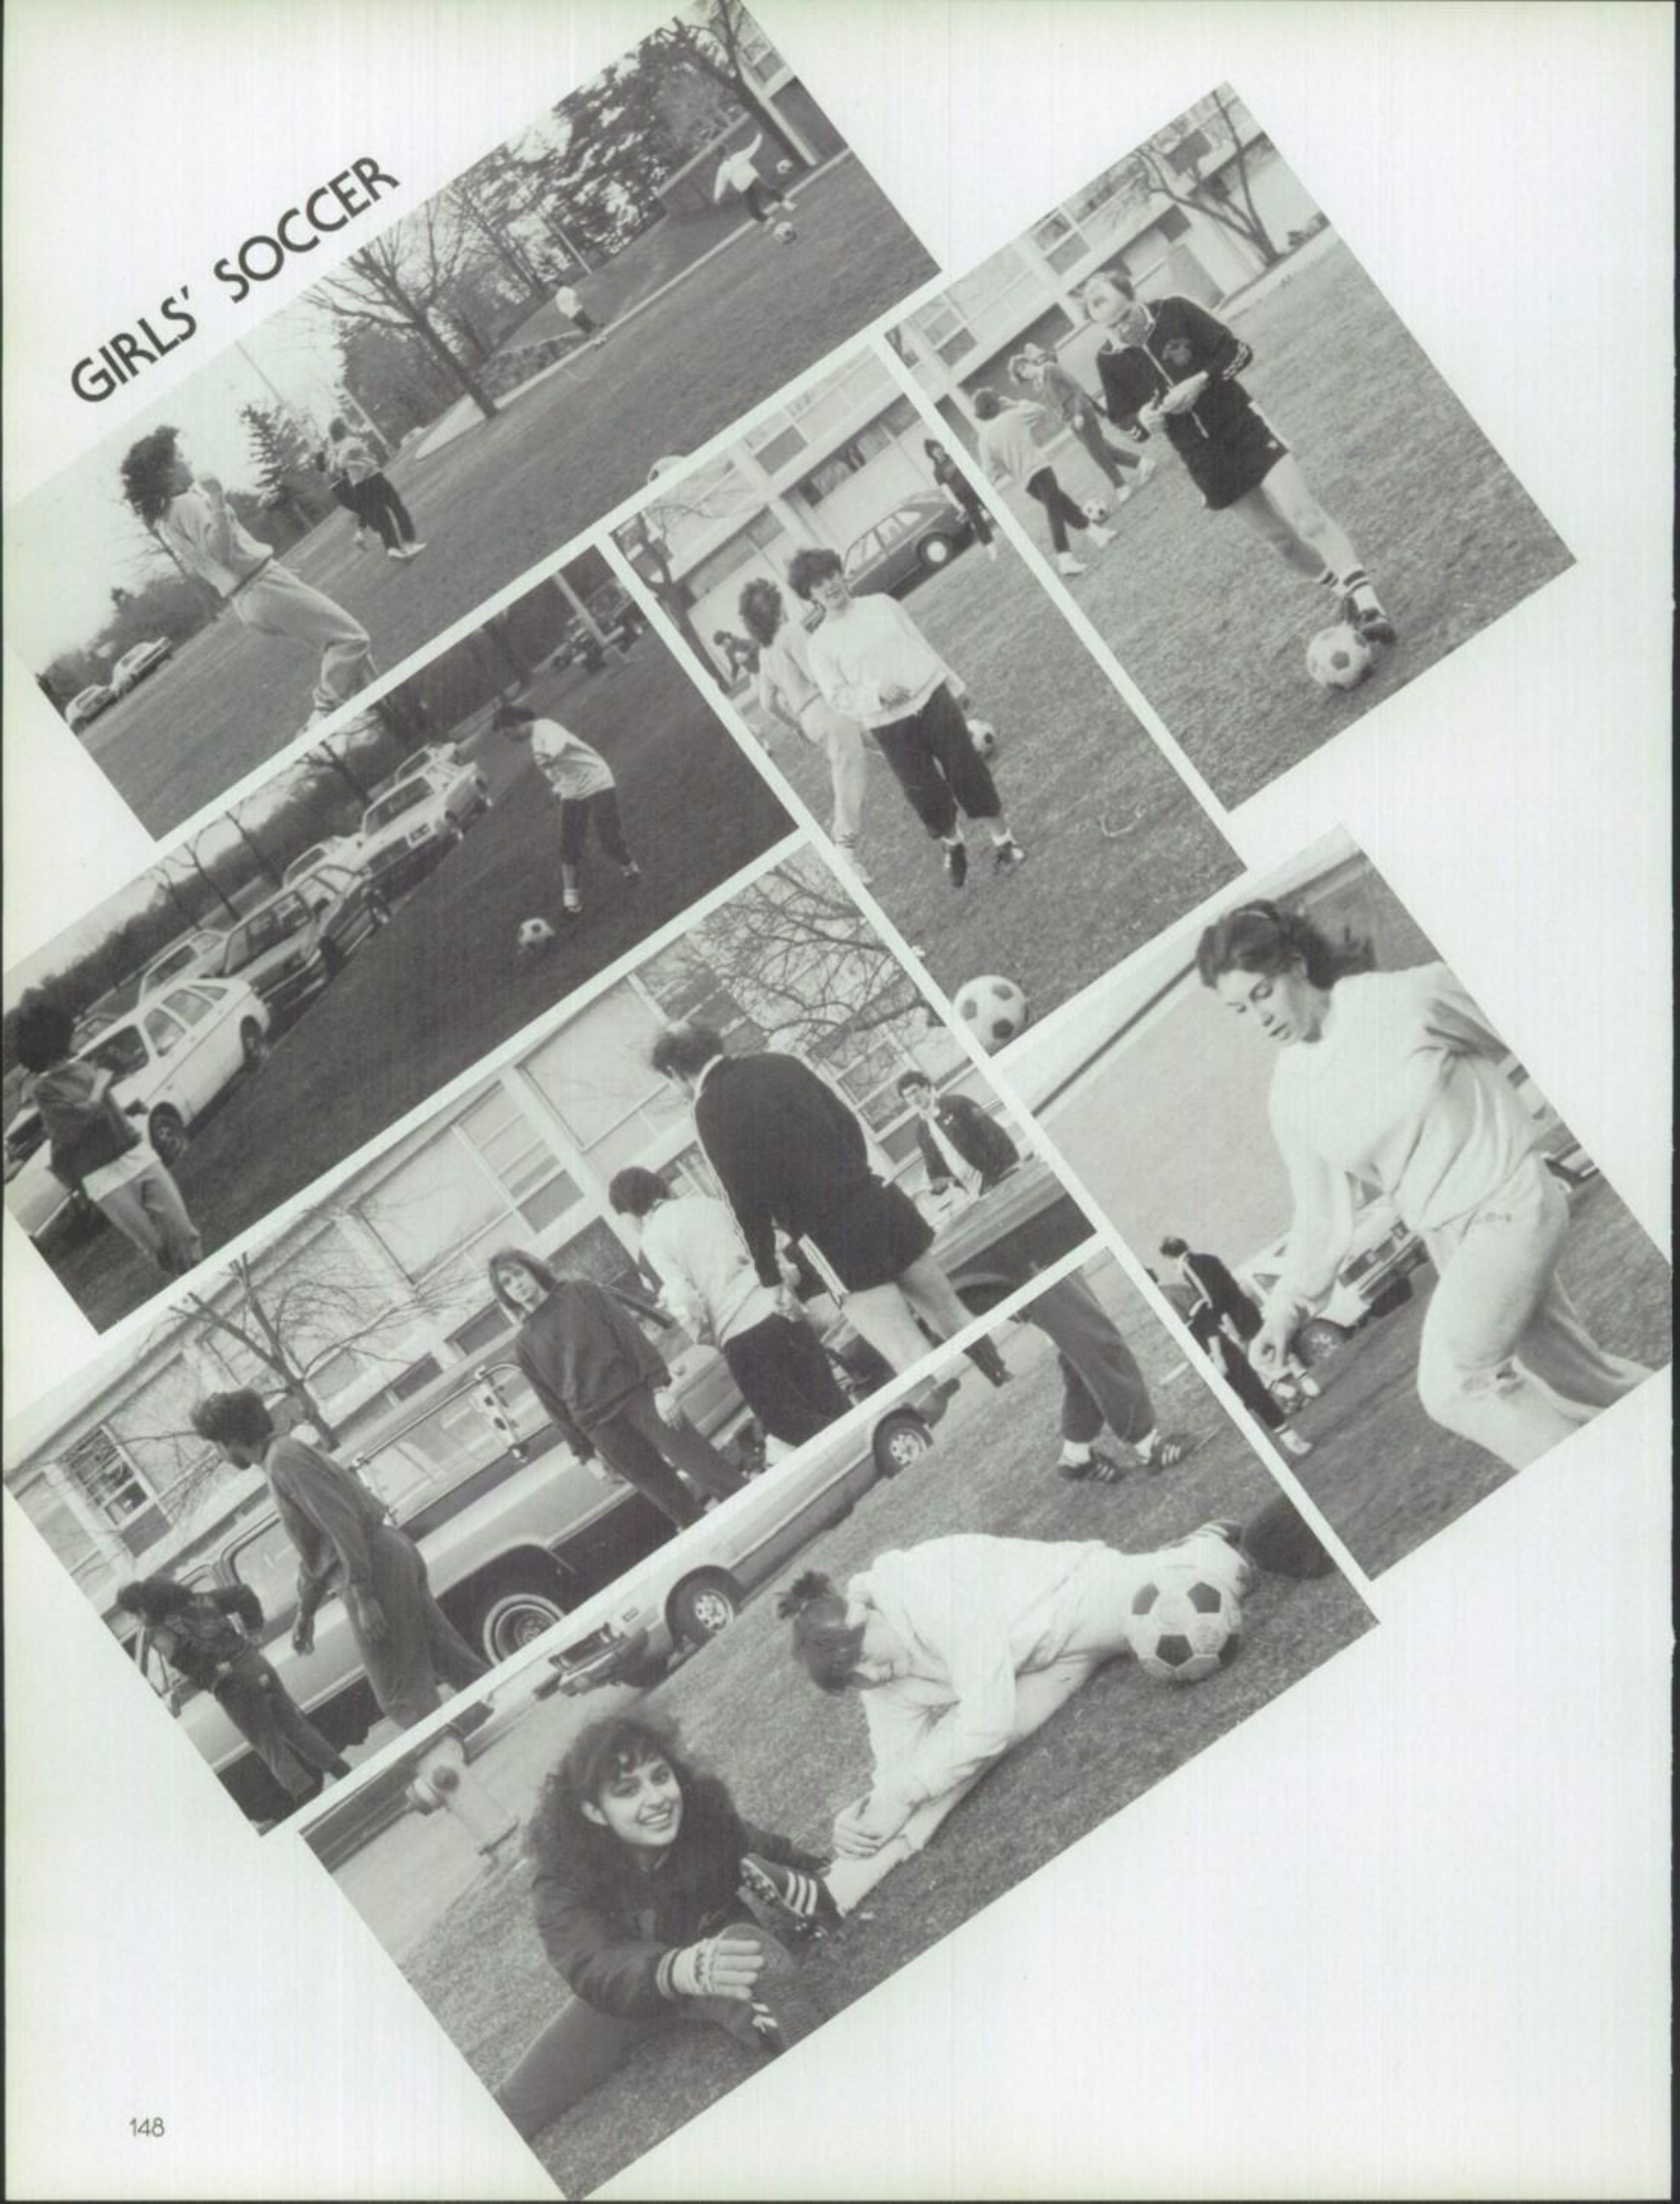


. . . a smashing success!!

BOYS' TENNIS

The team started off their season with a new coach and new plans. With the full schedule ahead of them, the players prepared for the competition with added structure in their workouts. Though the squad is very cohesive, tennis remains a very individualistic sport. The boys root for each other as they root for themselves.

GIRLS' SOCCER



Everybody's cutting footloose on the girls' soccer team. They've got their feet and mind on the ground. They leap up in a single bound and bring their ball down safely without a sound. They've got plenty of spirit and pizazz that no one else but the girls' White Plains soccer team has.

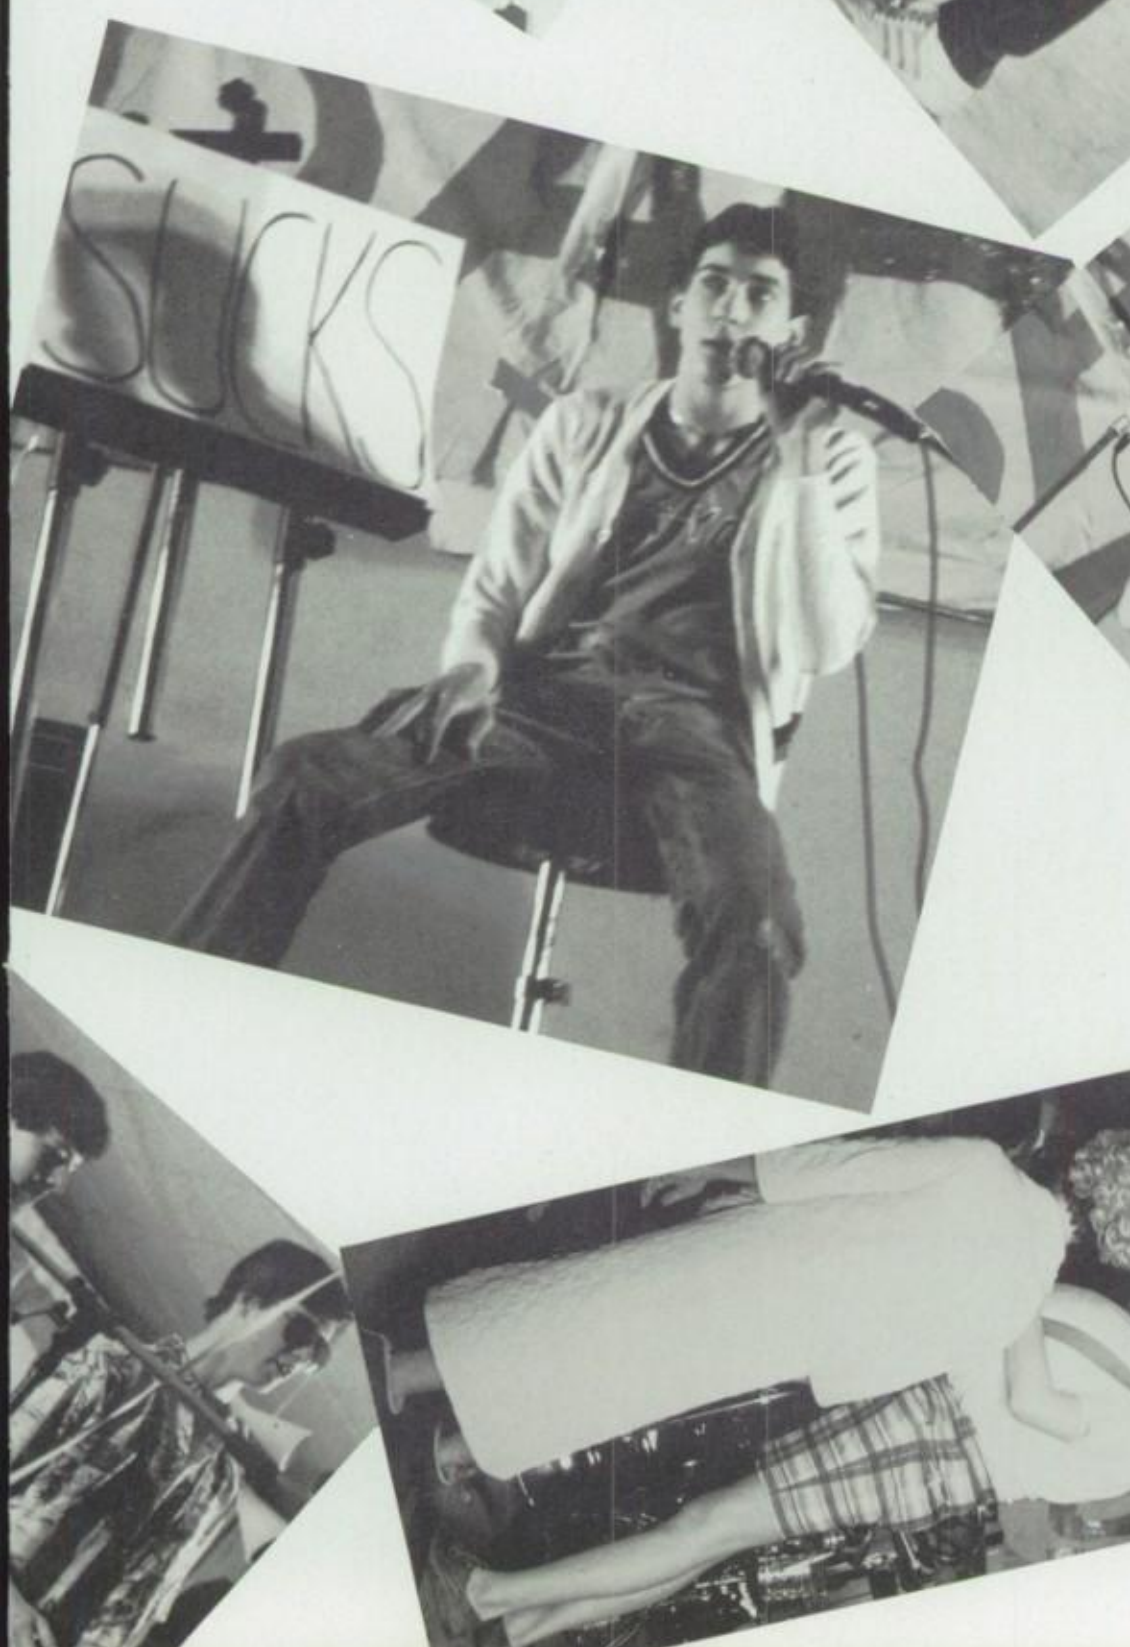
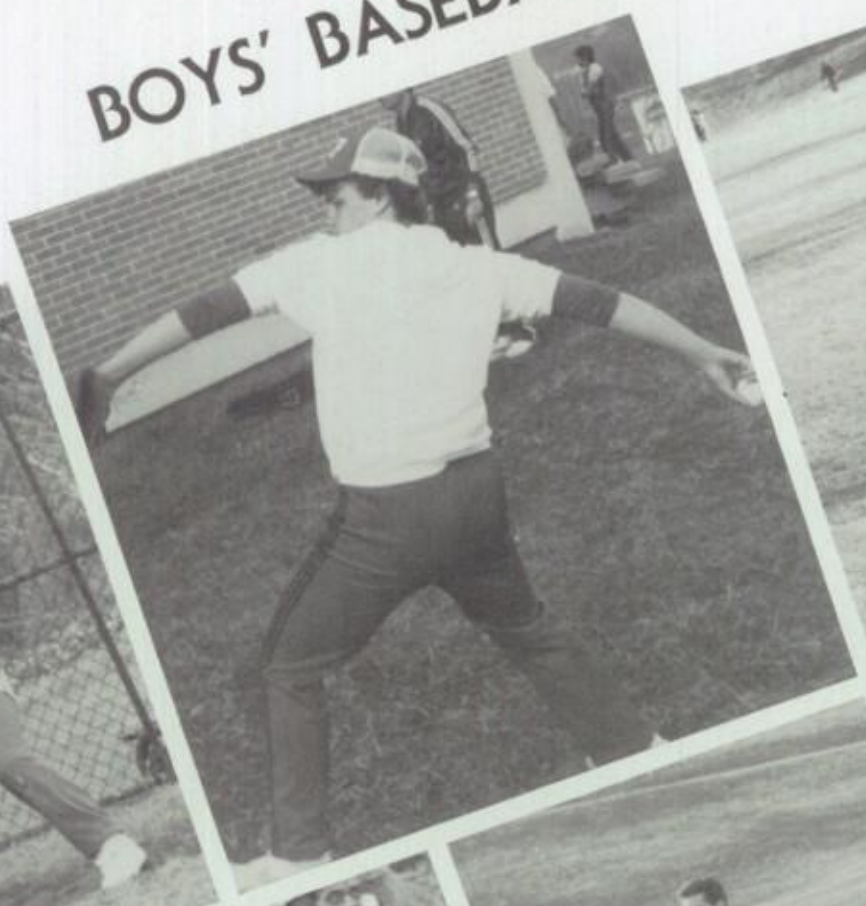
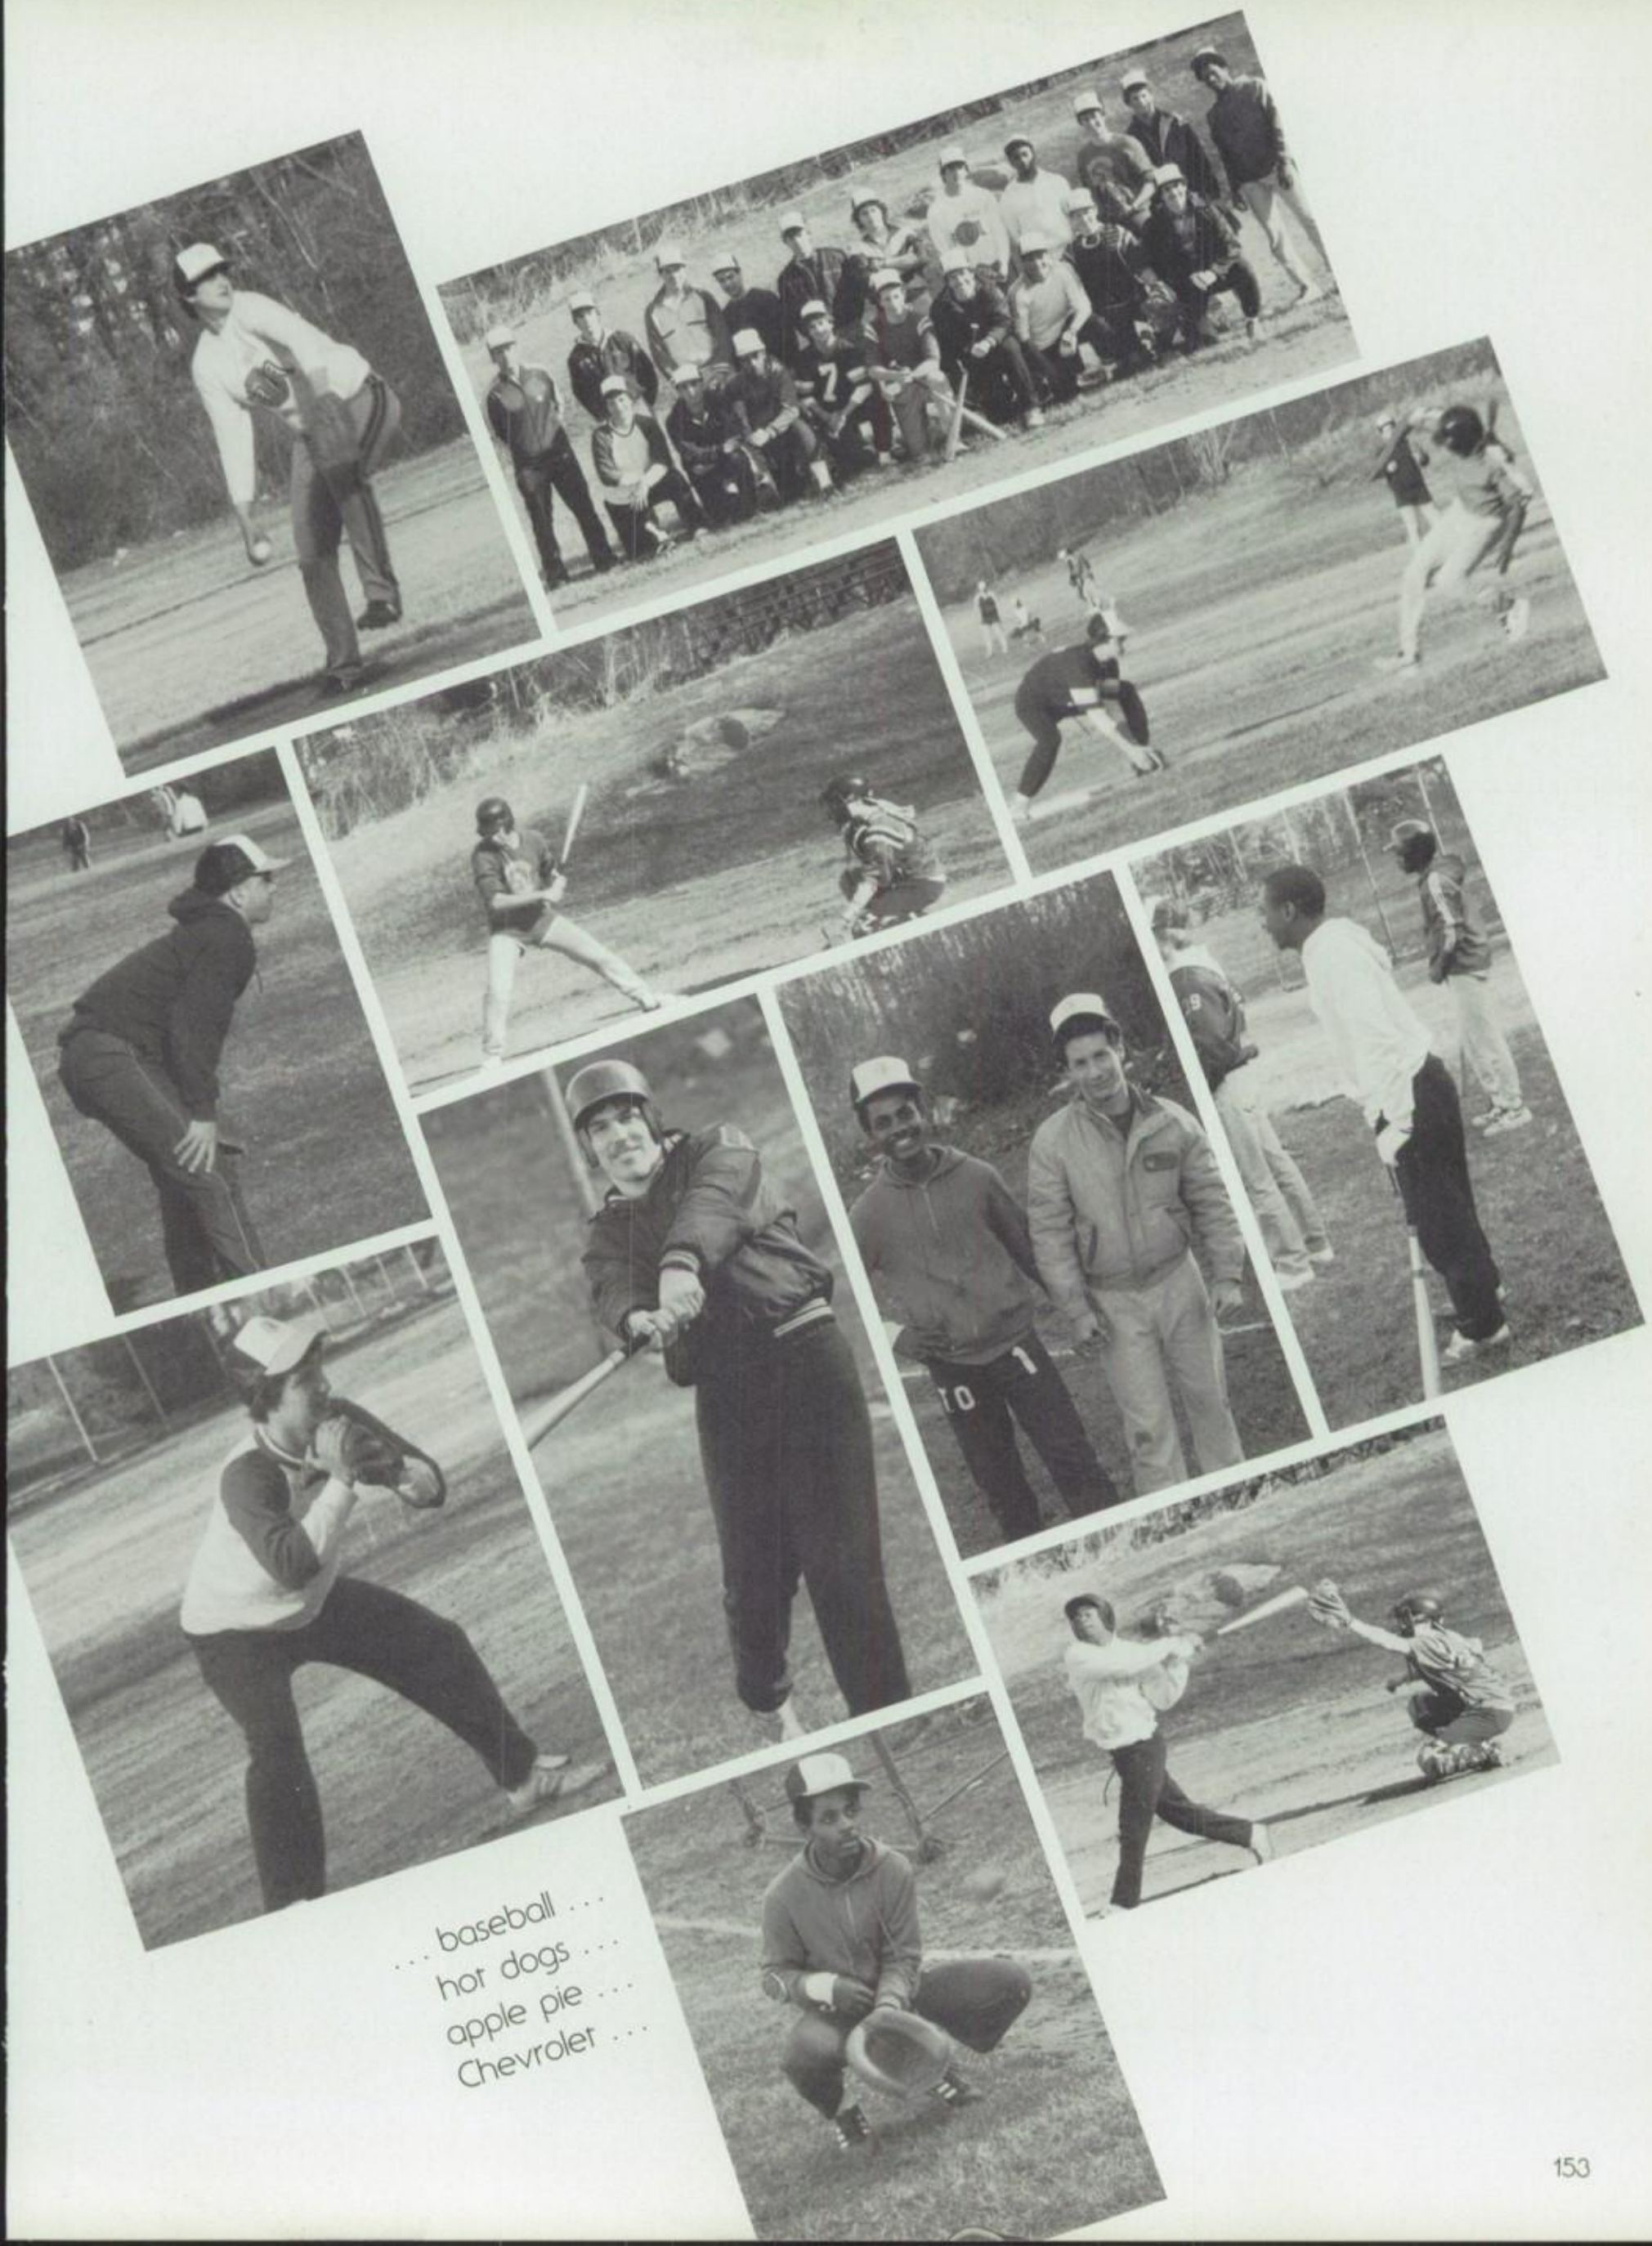
CABARET



WHAT WAS THE HOTTEST ACT AT WPHS THIS YEAR? COMBINING POWERFUL ROCK AND ROLL, HILARIOUS COMEDY AND AN ENTHUSIASTIC AUDIENCE, CABARET '85 HAD ALL THE INGREDIENTS FOR A SMASHING SUCCESS! THIS ENTERTAINMENT BONANZA FEATURED A MULTITALENTED CAST OF WPHS STUDENTS AND STAFF AND PROVIDED VIVID MEMORIES WHICH WILL LAST FOR YEARS TO COME. (NOTE: THIS PASSAGE WAS STOLEN FROM THE ORANGE.)

BOYS' BASEBALL





. . . baseball . . .
hot dogs . . .
apple pie . . .

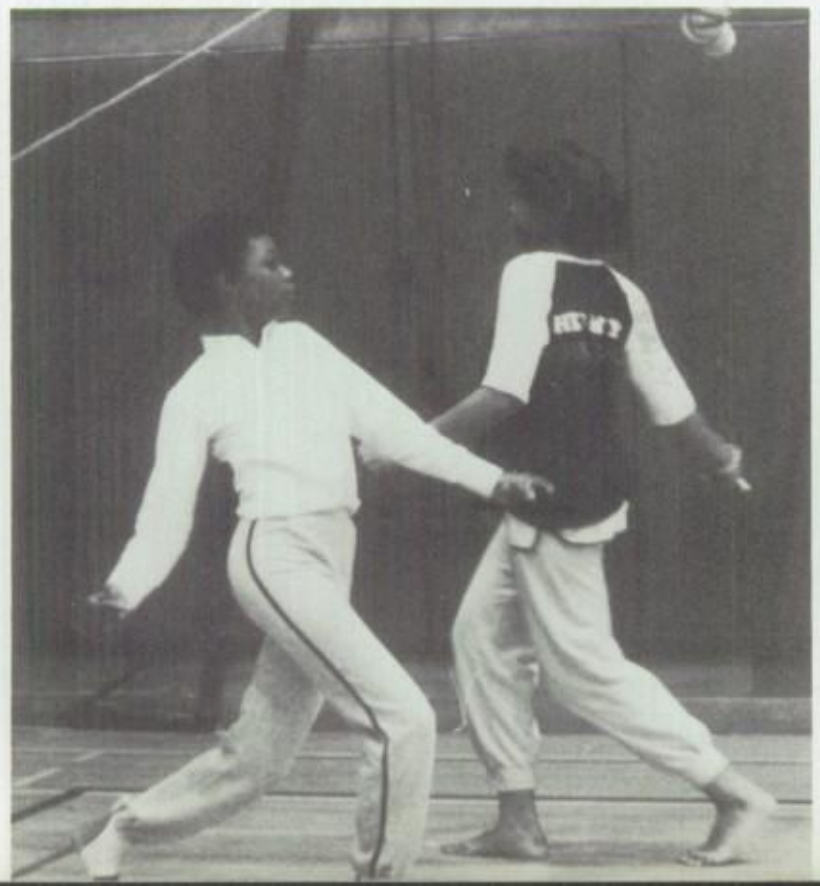
OUTDOOR TRACK

These runners suffered through shin splints and rain in order to develop their star quality. Their efforts paid off as talent showed its face on the track. From the triple jump to the 100 yard dash these kings and queens of the silver screen outshined all opponents. They strived for the perfect performance and achieved it.



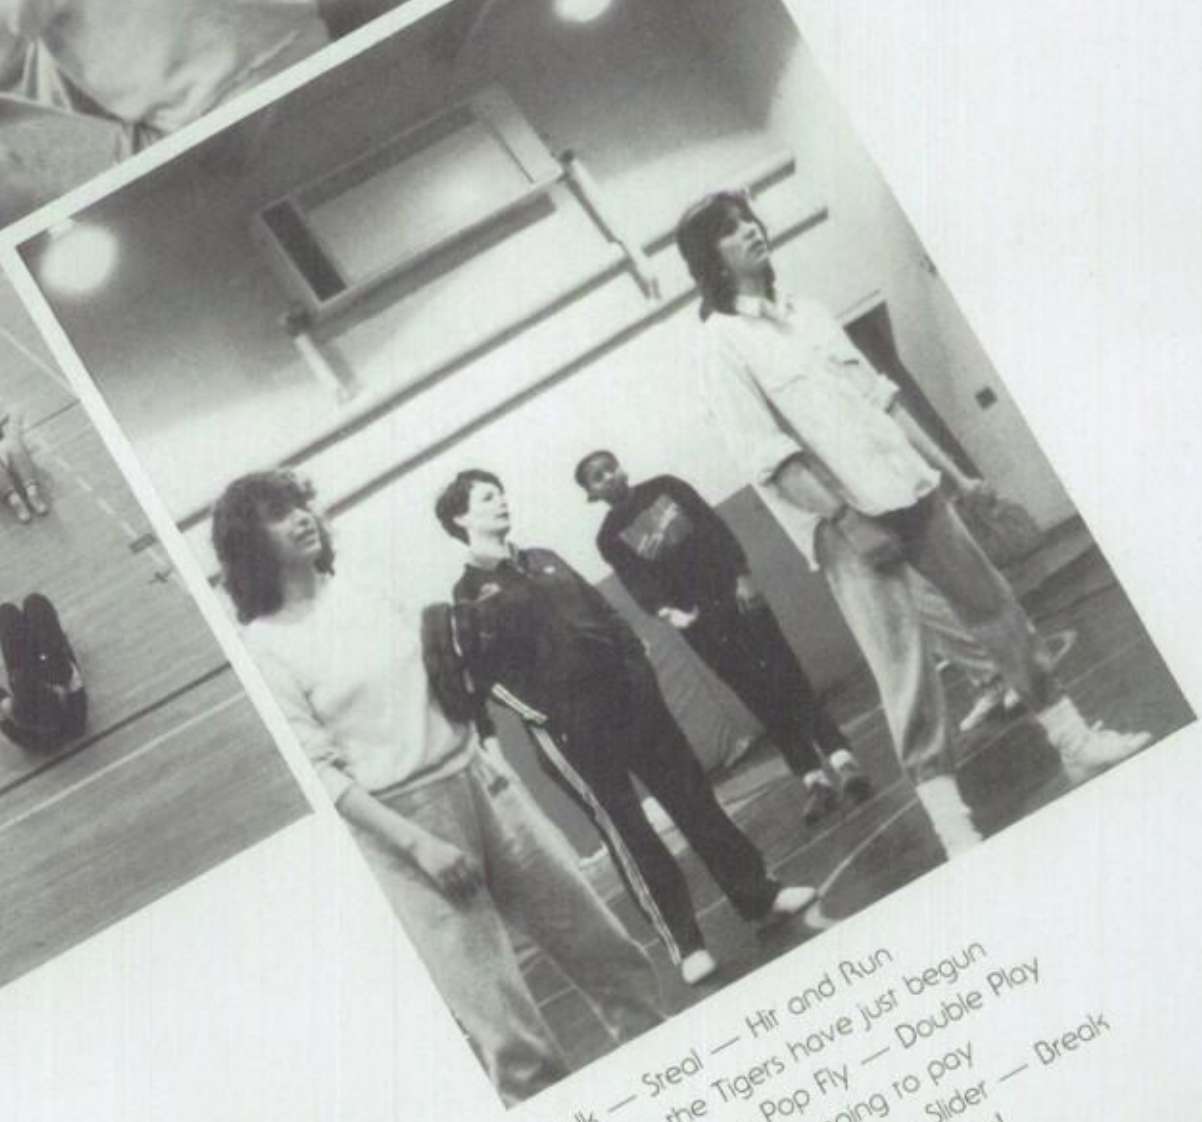
DANCE SHOW

Combine strength and flexibility with emotions and you have dance. This year the youth and spirit of the cast, the experience of the choreographers created a memorable show. All of the dancers with their unique interpretations of each dance dazzled the audience.

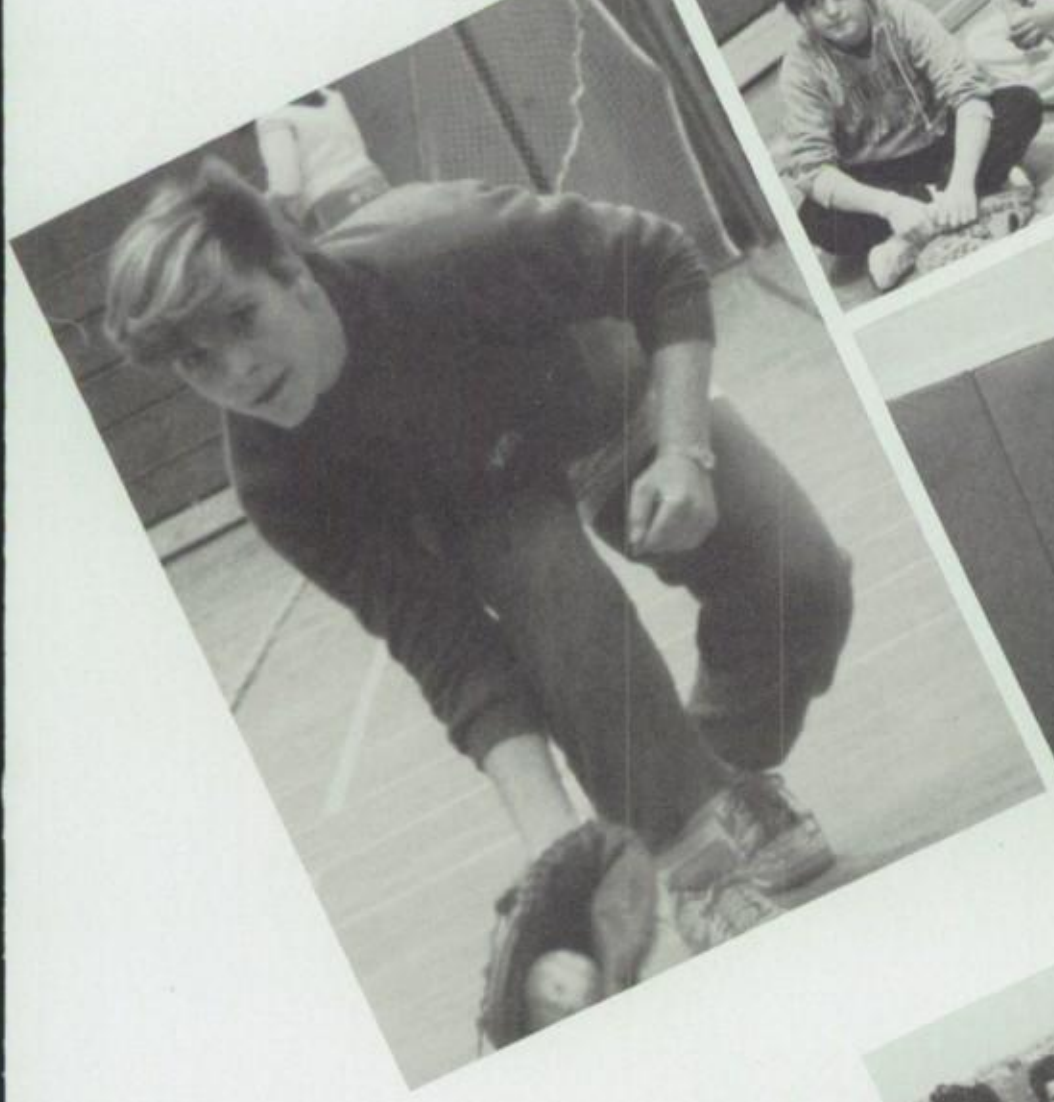
BOYS' GOLF

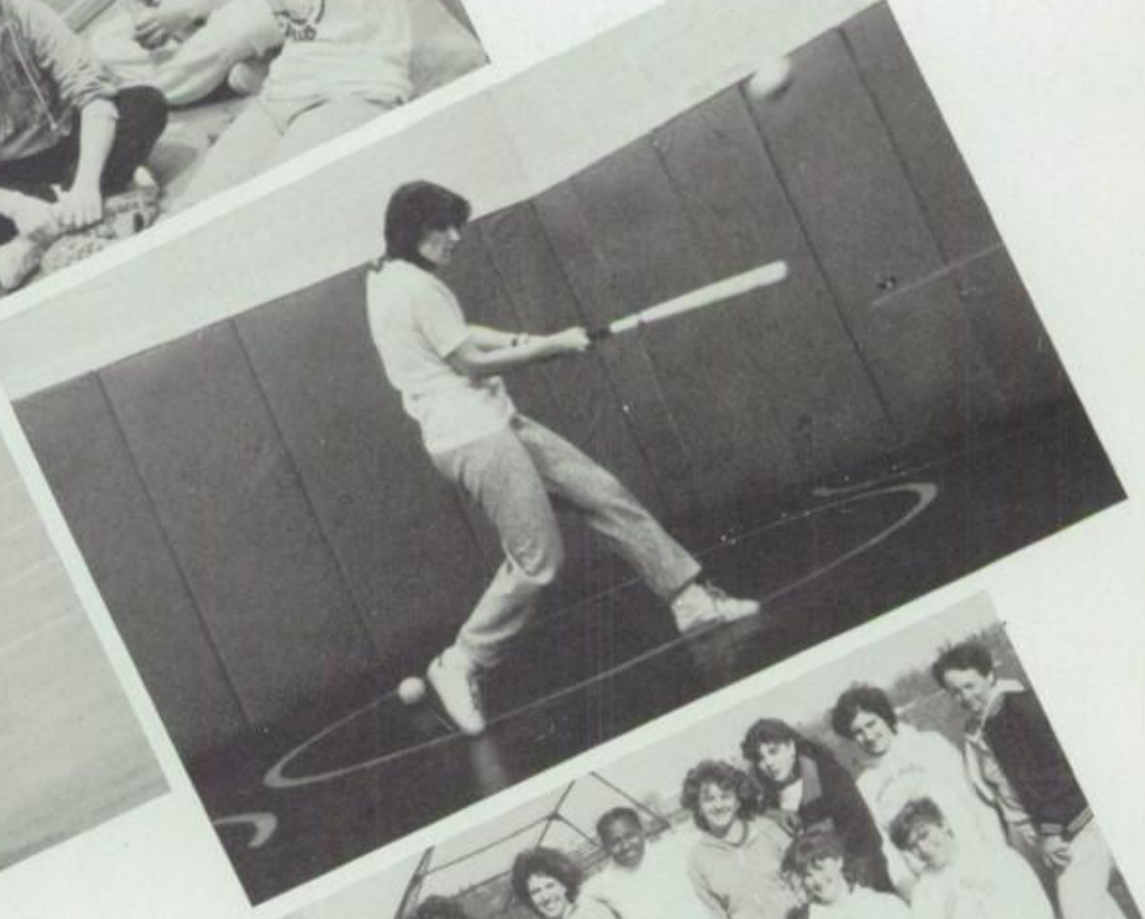
Spoon — Putter — Driver — Wedge
White Plains Golf Team has the edge
Bogey — Par — Birdie — Eagle
White Plains High School looks so regal
Field Hazard — Bunker — Sand Trap
Our Golf Team won't take that . . . !

GIRLS' SOFTBALL

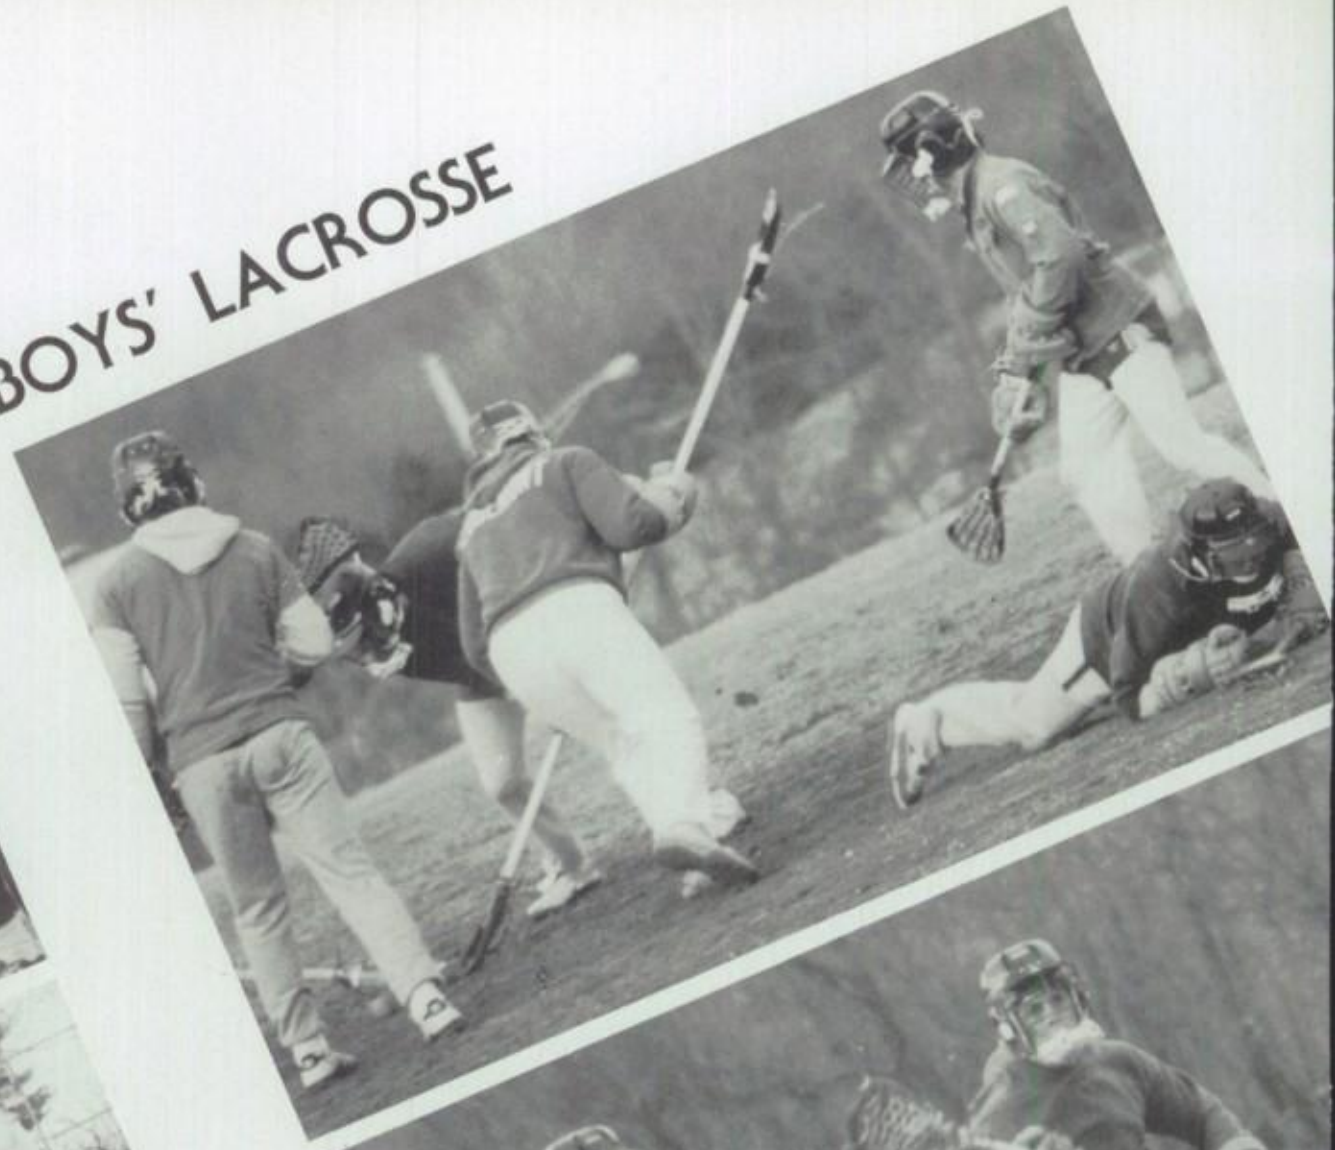


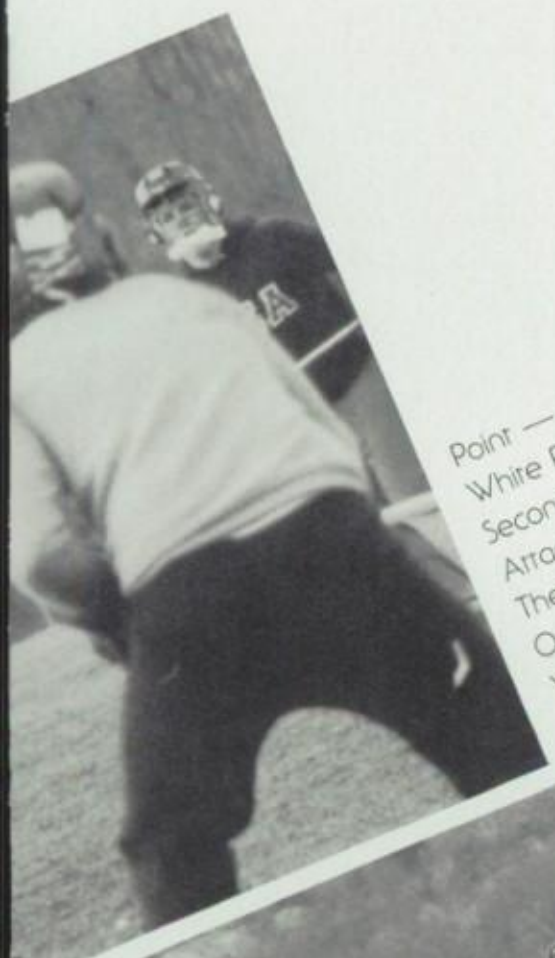
Walk — Steal — Hit and Run
Beware, the Tigers have just begun
Ground Ball — Pop Fly — Double Play
The other team is going to pay
Curve Ball — Fast Ball — Slider — Break
Wow, this team is really great!





BOYS' LACROSSE





Point — Cover Point — First Defense
White Plains' fans are getting tense
Second Defense — Center — First Attack
These players won't give any slack
Our home — In home — Goalkeeper
White Plains is going to win — Golly geeper!

SOME ENCHANTED EVENING

"Some Enchanted Evening" there was not just a twinkling of stars to remind us spring was happening at White Plains High School. This year spring was heralded with the lowering of our own silver screen as White Plains High School flashed back to the memorable tunes of Rogers and Hammerstein. The 1985 musical production, under the experienced direction of Sharon Greene, took a creative new approach to traditional performances with its review style, synthesizer accompaniment, and slide show. Needless to say the diversity of musical numbers gave great exposure to the many White Plains High School faces which comprised a talented cast.
